Socializing Militants: How States End Asymmetric Conflict with Non-State Militants Jeremiah

Rozman,2023-05-09 The twentieth and twenty first centuries have seen states engaged in long term conflicts with asymmetrically weaker non state actors NSA States aim to end these conflicts as quickly as possible by combining force and diplomacy to socialize these militants meaning give them the characteristics of states in order to make a credible bargain achievable The militant s characteristics determine the state s optimal strategy In times of conflict politicians and pundits often march out an oft cited phrase in support of negotiations if you want to make peace you don t talk to your friends You talk to your enemies This is only possible when the opponent is willing to make peace under acceptable terms and able to enforce abidance Some opponents have an ideologically driven fundamental purpose that precludes renouncing violence under terms that a state could accept Others have reasonable demands and are structured in a way that allows productive negotiations In other cases the non state militant is not yet the type that can be bargained with but can be socialized into this type through a state s correct application of force and diplomacy I call this socialization logic I argue that optimally states tailor their strategy to socialize with their opponent to make it possible to successfully negotiate peace In practice the state s strategy is often distorted by its internal and external constraints Socialization logic provides a novel typology of non state militants based on how well interstate conflict bargaining concepts can be applied to them It looks beyond tactics to systematize a framework for understanding how leaders tailor strategy towards non state opponents based on their characteristics Socialization logic examines the NSA type as endogenous to the strategy that the state employs and provides a framework for leaders to design a strategy to end the conflict Finally socialization logic synthesizes critical NSA attributes ideology leadership structure and governance function and the state s strategy distorted by constraints into in an interactive model Through 41 interviews primary and secondary source data I analyze the United States Russia s and Israel s asymmetric conflicts with militants and demonstrate that socialization logic most comprehensively explains their strategies throughout those conflicts

The PLO Alain Gresh,1988 The Conflict Within Islam Israr Hasan,2011-12-23 This is not a book of history it does not claim to cover every aspect of Islam religion It confines itself to the search for the true mission of Islam and how that mission has been hijacked in the struggle of faith and power This is the story of contest between religion and politics where politics was made a sacrament and religion abused In describing this aspect the historical part naturally cannot be ignored This is not a book of religion either Since religion and politics overlap each other in this study theology and jurisprudence have their interplay also The conflict within Islam for the soul of Islam continues Will the struggle be resolved in the present and the foreseeable future Or will it make life more difficult for the faithful This book attempts to find the answers

Journal of Palestine Studies ,1992 Devoted exclusively to the Arab Israeli conflict and Palestinian affairs A forum for study of the region and peaceful resolution to the conflict analysis of current developments in the peace process the latest historical scholarship and cultural and societal trends The World in Conflict 1989 John Laffin,1989 Vol 3 The Enemy of My Enemy George Michael,2006 In the violent world of radical extremists the enemy of my enemy is my friend This study reveals how that precept plays out in the unexpected bonding between militant Islam and the extreme right in America and Europe It provides an insightful and sane look at the possibilities for collaboration between these groups

Corum,Wray R. Johnson,2003 The use of airpower in wartime calls to mind the massive bombings of World War II but airplanes have long been instrumental in small wars as well Ever since its use by the French to put down rebellious Moroccan tribes in 1913 airpower has been employed to fight in limited but often lengthy small conflicts around the globe This is the first comprehensive history of airpower in small wars conflicts pitting states against non state groups such as insurgents bandits factions and terrorists tracing it from the early years of the twentieth century to the present day It examines dozens of conflicts with strikingly different scenarios the Greek Civil War the Philippine Anti Huk campaign French and British colonial wars the war in South Vietnam before the American escalation counterinsurgency in southern Africa Latin American counter guerrilla operations and counterinsurgency and counterterrorist campaigns in the Middle East over the last four decades For each war the authors describe the strategies employed on both sides of the conflict the air forces engaged and the specific airpower tactics employed They discuss the ground campaigns and provide the political background necessary to understand the air campaigns and in each case they judge the utility of airpower in its broadest sense In their historic sweep they show how forms of airpower evolved from planes to police helicopters aircraft of the civilian air reserve and today s unmanned aircraft They also disclose how small wars after World War II required new strategies operational solutions and tactics By taking this broad view of small war airpower the authors are able to make assessments about the most effective and least effective means of employing airpower They offer specific conclusions ranging from the importance of comprehensive strategy to the need for the United States and its allies to expand small wars training programs Airpower in Small Wars will be invaluable for educating military professionals and policy makers in the subject as well as for providing a useful framework for developing more effective doctrine for employing airpower in the conflicts we are most likely to see in the twenty first century The Palestinians and the Middle East Conflict Gabriel Ben-Dor,1978 Dr Gilkis life changing message is physical activity is for everyone at any age It can improve the quality of life the physical and mental health dramatically and be a source of joy and satisfaction A World Record of Major Conflict Areas David Munro,Alan John Day,1990 The Middle East ,1988 Middle East Contemporary Survey ,1989 The Palestine Liberation Organization and Its International Position Maija Lähteenmäki,1994
