Plowing The Dark A Novel:

Plowing the Dark Richard Powers, 2025-02-20 Part of the joy of reading Powers over the years has been his capacity for revelation Colson Whitehead On the west coast of America virtual reality researchers race to complete the Cavern a plain white room that can become a jungle a painting or a vast Byzantine cathedral Adie Klarpol a disillusioned artist is fascinated by this cutting edge technology In a war torn city on the eastern shores of the Mediterranean an American teacher Taimur Martin is held hostage chained to a radiator in an empty white room What can possibly join two such remote places Only the shared imagination a room that these two people unwittingly build in common Spectacular Riveting New York Times

Metamorphoses of (New) Media Julia Genz, Ulrike Kuchler, 2016-01-14 The current success story of new media and the ongoing digitalisation of our world provide an illuminating starting point for the discussion of the powerful revolutions in our media and media uses initiated by the introduction of a ny new medium how do new media evolve and how do they relate to established old media and media uses What does the rise of new media and media uses imply for other discourses And not least which methodological and theoretical approaches help us to understand these developments Metamorphoses of New Media offers an international and interdisciplinary range of studies on these questions In examining the effects of new media and media uses in fields such as social discourse transmediality and aesthetics the essays in this collection engage with a great variety of examples from political debate on Twitter to digital storytelling and the game like experience of DVDs What these diverse perspectives share however is an approach to Metamorphoses of New Media as an ongoing recursive process of change that initiates dialogue and casts light on existing discursive medial and aesthetic models Pluralist Desires Philipp Löffler, 2015 Excavates the contemporary revival of 19th century cultural pluralism revealing how American novelists since the 1990s have appropriated the historical novel in the pursuit of selfhood rather than truth fundamentally repositioning the genre in American culture A Body of Individuals Sue-Im Lee, 2009 Why are some versions of the collective we admired and desired while other versions are scorned and feared A Body of Individuals The Paradox of Community in Contemporary Fiction examines the conflict over the collective we through discourses of community In the discourse of benevolent community community is a tool towards achieving healing productiveness and connection In the discourse of dissenting community community that serves a function is simply another name for totalitarianism instead community must merely be a fact of coexistence What are the sources and the appeal of these irreconcilable views of community and how do they interact in contemporary fiction s attempt at imagining we By engaging contemporary U S writers such as Toni Morrison Richard Powers Karen Tei Yamashita Lydia Davis Lynne Tillman and David Markson with theorists such as Jean Luc Nancy Giorgio Agamben Fran ois Lyotard Ernesto Laclau Louis Althusser Roland Barthes and Ludwig Wittgenstein this book reveals how the two conflicting discourses of community benevolent and dissenting are inextricably intertwined in various literary visions of we we of the family of the world of the human and of coexistence These literary visions demonstrate in a way that popular visions of community and postmodern theories of community cannot the dialectical relationship between the discourses of benevolent community and dissenting community Sue Im Lee argues that contemporary fiction's inability to resolve the paradox results in a model of ambivalent community one that offers unique insights into community and into the very notion of unity Walking the Möbius Strip Johanna Heil, 2016 Walking the Mobius Strip locates Richard Powers's fiction at the crossroads of postmodern and post postmodern aesthetics and argues that this paradigm shift shapes the models of knowledge and understanding that underwrite his work The readings of Plowing the Dark Galatea 2.2 and The Echo Maker are inspired by Jacques Lacan's image of cognition as a Mobius strip on which different forms of propositional and non propositional knowledge bleed into and depend upon one another Drawing on feminist epistemology and psychoanalysis this study highlights Powers's interest in the non propositional aspects of cognition that is in all that escapes the frameworks of scientific empiricism and can only be known through the mediation of fictional narrative It reveals a deep dissatisfaction in the novels with the suggestion that knowledge and understanding must be objective and rational and elucidates Powers's idea that fiction can be a powerful tool for integrating various kinds of knowledge Poets & Writers, 2000 Twelve Companion to Contemporary Literature in English from the Editors of the Hollins Critic Richard H. W. Dillard, Amanda Cockrell, 2003 This new title offers a unique collection of critical essays on writers of poetry and fiction of the past 25 years This two volume anthology provides detailed updated entries on approximately 100 American Canadian British and Irish writers including Maya Angelou John Ashbery Mary Gaitskill Ted Hughes Toni Morrison Michael Ondaatje Thomas Pynchon and Anne Tyler Esquire, 2000 Arbyte, 2000 The magazine of digital arts Hive of Dreams Grace L. Dillon, 2003 This unique collection brings together for the first time the work of a dozen internationally prominent science fiction writers who make their home in the Pacific Northwest Editor Grace L Dillon's informative introduction shows how the region's culture economy and natural environment are reflected in the work of these different authors Exploring tensions between our increasing affinity with technology and traditional concerns with environmental sustainability the works presented here demonstrate the spirit that makes Northwest science fiction distinctive Hive of Dreams begins in the forests and mountains of the Northwest with Ursula Le Guin's The Good Trip and ends in the cities and multinational conglomerates of the Pacific Rim with William Gibson's Idoru In the space between readers will encounter writings by such notable authors as Greg Bear Octavia Butler Douglas Coupland Molly Gloss Richard Powers Joanna Russ Neal Stephenson and John Varley among others Hive of Dreams will clearly establish the unique signature of Northwest writers within the broader world and traditions of science fiction Lovers of great science fiction as well as teachers and students of contemporary literature in general will find much of interest in this exciting collection The book will also appeal to readers looking for new writers or for an introduction to the genre Die US-amerikanische Gesellschaft im Spiegel ihrer zeitgenössischen Literatur Hans-Peter Burmeister, 2004 Amerikanisches Erzählen nach
