

Instructions for completing a Written Notice of Pleading – pleading guilty
These are instructions only. It is important to complete this form with your own details and based on your own circumstances. If you need more help, you should seek legal advice.

Written Notice of Pleading

Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (section 182)

Important (please read this before filling in the form)

Complete this form only if you want to lodge a plea in writing instead of attending Court on the day the proceeding(s) is listed.

If you complete this form it must be sent to the Court where the proceeding(s) is issued. The Court house location is on the Court Attendance Notice.

Filling in this form

You should get legal advice about this form before you fill it in. Legal advice is important because you need to know if you can use this form and, if so, what effect it has.

This form cannot be used if you have signed a bail agreement to appear at court.

When the Court must get this form

You must make sure that the Court receives this form before the date of the court hearing shown in the attendance notice.

Part 1 Details about your court case

Please either attach to this form a copy of your attendance notice or fill in the details below using the information on the attendance notice:

Name of Defendant (your name): Write your name

Offence: Write the details of the offence as stated in your Court Attendance Notice (CAN)

Place of Court Hearing (name and address of Court): Write the name and address of the Court hearing your matter as listed in your CAN

Date of Court Hearing: Write the date you have to attend court as stated in your CAN

Part 2 Pleading not guilty

Leave this section blank

About pleading Not Guilty:

Pleading not guilty means that you disagree with the facts alleged by the prosecution, saying that they did not occur or that the evidence of the alleged offence to be presented by the prosecution is insufficient to allow the allegation to be proved against you.

It is often the case that you merely wish to explain WHY the alleged events occurred and for the court to take those reasons into account. In this situation you may seek legal advice as to how to plead or consider pleading guilty and
