Based on the authors' views about the essence of marketing in concepts such as market orientation, long term relationships, quality and ultimately satisfaction, this unique book includes the latest developments in Europe, Northern America and Australasia. The text is built around four themes: The fundamentals of services marketing management; A new classification of services based on an extensive overview of existing classifications; The definition of four new types of services; The increasing trend to the internationalization of services. The benefits of this book are threefold: the reader will have an understanding of services marketing management in both a national and an international context; be able to manage a market oriented service organization and be able to deliver excellent service quality leading to long term relationships with customers and employees. Numerous examples illustrate key points discussed in the text and each chapter concludes with a case study. The Academy of Management Review Academy of Management, 1993 Journal of Business Research University of Georgia.
