Setting the Captives Free Marion L. S. Carson, 2016-11-24 Setting the Captives Free explores how a theological understanding of slavery goes against the idea of a God who is loving and just with the intention of being widely used in churches activist organisations and groups and by individuals Ardently arguing that slavery is incompatible with Christianity Marion Carson analyses how both anti slavery and pro slavery movements have been justified with the help of Scripture In Setting the Captives Free she provides an answer to the question What can the Bible say to us about contemporary human trafficking By looking through important passages from the Old and the New Testament Carson suggests what they might have to say to us about slavery in the twenty first century She analyses how Christians changed their views of slavery after its abolition before closely examining what the Bible has to say about slavery in general especially with regards to prostitution At the end of each chapter study questions are included to aid individual and group discussions in the hope that they will increase awareness of human trafficking and encourage more Christians to become actively involved in its eradication Setting the Captives Free Austin

Miles,1990-11 I was brought into a Christian church by a so called Christian lady While I received Jesus Christ in my heart she left the service to go sleep with my husband Before I had time to think there stood Mr X In a split second he grabbed me and began to squeeze my breasts and crotch I remember struggling to escape I was twelve years old Our church s youth pastor became sick with cancer Medical treatment was resisted and all they did was pray and fast around him 24 hours a day He died He was 26 years old Ten years as a minister with the Assemblies of God Church turned Austin Miles into one of today s most outspoken critics of the church and propelled him into the international spotlight as an important spokesperson on a subject that has been handled far too delicately for far too long Miles first book the controversial Don t Call Me Brother sold thousands of copies appeared on several religious bestseller lists and led to an unprecedented outpouring of media attention and public response This book updates events following the publication of the book and the televangelist scandals and includes letters from Miles admirers and critics from a 70 year old man who sees the truth about born again Christianity for the first time to a ministerial candidate with a high heel fetish Letters from followers of the late faith healer William Branham call the book blasphemous others detail tragic stories of molestation the loss of life savings and the alienation of family members These letters many of them expressing confusion and pain provide the springboard for Miles hard hitting examination of deceptive religious organizations and for updates on the cast of characters that still controls much of the religious thinking of our time Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,2001

Whether the problem is sin, sadness, discouragement, rejection, anger, fear, weariness, emptiness, failure, being overwhelmed, or even facing death, there is a way to overcome. Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him, he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Hebrews 12:2 NIV. Fixing our eyes on the problem is the world's approach to change, whereas fixing our eyes on Jesus is the Bible's way of transformation. Come learn with us how to fix our eyes on Jesus so that we might triumph over life's tragedies and be more than conquerors through Jesus, who loves us.

Setting the Captives Free Len Ward, 2007-05-01 In this book you will find the resources to build your foundation to fight the good fight of faith. 1Tim 6:12 Many Christians are slaves to addictions, are held in bondage because of curses, evil soul ties, and the lack of God's Word being used in their lives. Len's ministry is based on the last words of Jesus Christ: Go and make disciples. God is calling you into the battle of spiritual warfare. Put on your armour and spread the good news.
