Sexuality in the Confessional Stephen Haliczer, 1996-01-25 In Sexuality in the Confessional A Sacrament Profaned Stephen Haliczer places the current debate on sex celibacy and the Catholic Church in a historical context by drawing upon a wealth of actual case studies and trial evidence to document how from 1530 to 1819 sexual transgression attended the heightened significance of the Sacrament of Penance Attempting to reassert its moral and social control over the faithful the Counter Reformation Church underscored the importance of communion and confession Priests were asked to be both exemplars of celibacy and doctors of souls and the Spanish Inquisition was there to punish transgressors Haliczer relates the stories of these priests as well as their penitents using the evidence left by Inquisition trials to vividly depict sexual misconduct during and after confession and the punishments wayward priests were forced to undergo In the process he sheds new light on the Church of the period the repressed lives of priests and the lives of their congregations coming to a conclusion as startling as it is timely Based on an exhaustive investigation of Inquisition cases involving soliciting confessors as well as numerous confessors manuals and other works Sexuality in the Confessional makes a significant contribution to the history of sexuality women s history and the sociology of religion Confessional Subjects Susan David Bernstein, 1997 Susan Bernstein examines the gendered power relationships embedded in confessional literature of the Victorian period Exploring this dynamic in Charlotte Brontë s Villette Mary Elizabeth Braddon s Lady Audley s Secret George Eliot s Da Confession Jeremy Tambling, 1990 The Priest, the Woman, and the Confessional Charles Paschal Telesphore Chiniquy, 1876 My Confession graf Leo Tolstoy, 1899 The Priest, the Woman, and the Confessional Charles CHINIQUY, 1875 The Priest in the Confessional ... Letter ... in Reply to ... R. F. Clarke, Roman Catholic Priest, Etc George Warburton WELDON, 1870 Sex and the New Medieval Literature of Confession, 1150-1300 Pierre J. Payer, 2009 This volume rounds out an important trilogy of studies by Pierre Payer on the topic of sex in the ecclesiastical thought and writings of the middle ages His first volume Sex and the Penitentials The Development of a Sexual Code 550 1150 1984 provided a comprehensive survey of the treatment of sexual issues in early penitential writings The Bridling of Desire Views of Sex in the Later Middle Ages 1993 his second book carried the discussion forward into the twelfth and thirteenth centuries assessing the contributions to the topic in the era of the great scholastic theologians such as Aquinas Bonaventure and Albert the Great In every way the equal of the two magisterial studies that preceded it this third volume examines the treatment of sex in the new literature of penance and confession Composed by canon lawyers as well as by theologians for the instruction of priests it is one of the most popular genres of writing of the later middle ages although it remains largely unknown and underutilized as a historical source Sex figures prominently revealing the concerns and expectations of the authors and presenting their solutions to the practical matters of how sexual behaviour was to be confessed what questions were to be asked of penitents and what penances were to be imposed Pierre Payer guides readers through this varied and heterogeneous corpus with great patience and erudition His analysis ranges over the origin and development of the idea of lechery as one of the capital sins and the distinction between natural and unnatural acts and explores the moral consequences of sexual behaviour even within marriage providing us much insight into the act and art of confession and the intimate relationship between priest and penitent that underlies it The Gospel magazine, and theological review. Shimmering Images Eliza Steinbock,2019-02-14 In Shimmering Images Eliza Steinbock traces how cinema offers alternative ways to understand gender transitions through a specific aesthetics of change Drawing on Barthes s idea of the shimmer and Foucault s notion of sex as a mirage the author shows how sex and gender can appear mirage like on film an effect they label shimmering Steinbock applies the concept of shimmering which delineates change in its emergent form as well as the qualities of transforming bodies images and affects to analyses of films that span time and genre These include examinations of the fantastic and phantasmagorical shimmerings of sex change in Georges Méliès s nineteenth century trick films and Lili Elbe s 1931 autobiographical writings and photomontage in Man into Woman Steinbock also explores more recent documentaries science fiction and pornographic and experimental films Presenting a cinematic philosophy of transgender embodiment that demonstrates how shimmering images mediate transitioning Steinbock not only offers a corrective to the gender binary orientation of feminist film theory they open up new means to understand trans ontologies and epistemologies as emergent affective and processual The sacrament of penance. The confessional John Thomas Waller,1883 Albany Law Journal ,1871 *"Reality": a consideration of how and why people object to Confession. The Collected Works of George Moore: Evelyn Innes George Moore,1898 The Performance and Interrogation of 'Generic Lives' and Gendered Selves in the Confessional Poetry of John Berryman and Anne Sexton Elena Mertel,2019-09-11 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.3 University of Dusseldorf Heinrich Heine language English abstract This thesis aims to examine the interrogation and performance of generic lives and gendered selves in the poetry of John Berryman and Anne Sexton In doing so I will give answers to the following questions In how far did social norms influence the lyrical I s way of thinking and acting Or were those societal restrictions excluded from the isolated situation of the poem Are gender conventions more present in poems featuring a female persona Not more than 60 years ago North America was strongly biased with unrealistic gender roles Women were stereotyped as housewives whose greatest struggles were keeping husband and children satisfied the household and their good looking However thousands of women missed to meet those expectations and considered themselves as individual failures However not only women suffered from social etiquette that was imposed on them The excessive promotion of virility equally troubled many men Then in the 1960s there was a significant change Influenced by the radical formations of various citizen movements gender concepts were challenged not only in a political context but also within the arts For the first time after centuries poetry again dealt with political issues This was the time of the Beats and the Confessional Poets The latter group is often associated with poets such as John Berryman Robert Lowell Sylvia Plath and Anne Sexton The works of Berryman and Sexton will be examined in more depth Both of them used their poems to express their personal views on the conventions of the period What was intended to serve as a form of self therapy turned into poetic empowerment for many Americans who experienced similar circumstances but were too afraid to talk about it publicly In this respect Anne Sexton has often been considered as a precursor of following feminist movements The lyric of the male poets of the time however has mostly been ignored in this context Both poets were working during the 1950s and 60s both experienced socially imposed gender treatments both lived the generic life The expression refers to the seemingly predetermined lifestyle of these poets including parental difficulties in their childhood excessive alcohol and drug abuse mental disorders publicly displayed affairs as well as suicidal tendencies While Sexton s poetry continuously tackles the problem of gender conventions Berryman s remarks on the topic are rather subtle Evelyn Innes George Moore,1898
