Settlement And Land Use In Micheldever Hundred Hampshire 700 1100:

Alfred the Great Timothy Reuter, 2017-05-15 1999 marked the eleven hundredth anniversary of the death of Alfred the Great and to mark this event two international conferences were held to re evaluate and contextualise Alfred's achievements and the developments of his reign This volume includes papers given at both events and provides substantial assessments by leading scholars of issues of source criticism of the large corpus of Old English literature associated with Alfred and of developments in government and society in late ninth century England It also explores how Alfred and his kingdom related to the wider geo political and cultural situation in the British isles and continental Europe and closes with a substantial survey of the uses and shifts in Alfred's reputation in the centuries following his death This substantial and wide ranging volume will become a standard reference work for anyone interested in Old English literature or Anglo Saxon history and will set the pattern of future scholarly debate

Manor, Vill, and Hundred Eric C. Klingelhöfer, Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies, 1992

The Medieval Antecedents of English Agricultural Progress Bruce M.S. Campbell, 2023-05-31 Until recently historians tended to stress the perceived technological and ecological shortcomings of medieval agriculture The ten essays assembled in this volume offer a contrary view Based upon close documentary analysis of the demesne farms managed for and by lords they show that by 1300 in the most commercialized parts of England production decisions were based upon relative factor costs and commodity prices Moreover when and where economic conditions were ripe and environmental and institutional circumstances favourable medieval cultivators successfully secured high and ecologically sustainable levels of land productivity They achieved this by integrating crop and livestock production into the sort of manure intensive systems of mixed husbandry which later underpinned the more celebrated output growth of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries If medieval agriculture failed to fulfill the production potential provided by wider adoption of such systems this is more appropriately explained by the want of the kind of market incentives that might have justified investment innovation and specialization on the scale that characterized the so called agricultural revolution than either the lack of appropriate agricultural technology or the innate backwardness of medieval cultivators

Cannabis Robert Clarke, Mark Merlin, 2016-06-28 Cannabis Evolution and Ethnobotany is a comprehensive interdisciplinary exploration of the natural origins and early evolution of this famous plant highlighting its historic role in the development of human societies Cannabis has long been prized for the strong and durable fiber in its stalks its edible and oil rich seeds and the psychoactive and medicinal compounds produced by its female flowers The culturally valuable and often irreplaceable goods derived from cannabis deeply influenced the commercial medical ritual and religious practices of cultures throughout the ages and human desire for these commodities directed the evolution of the plant toward its contemporary varieties As interest in cannabis grows and public debate over its many uses rises this book will help us understand why humanity continues to rely on this plant and adapts it to suit our needs
