Settlement Encounter Geographical Studies Presented To Sir Grenfell Price:

Settlement & Encounter Archibald Grenfell Price, 1969 Article by Fay Gale listed separately Includes bibliography of works by Sir Grenfell Price Settlement and Encounter; Geographical Studies Presented to Sir Grenfell Price.

Edited by Fay Gale and Graham H. Lawton Fay ed Gale, Geography and National Identity David Hooson, 1994-10-20 This volume of especially commissioned essays explores the geography of and the role of geography in national and proto national identity Place and national identity are bound together Attachment to the one is almost always inseparable from the sense of the other Yet as this volume shows the articulated self conscious linking of place and identity is by and large a modern phenomenon that took root in nineteenth century Europe The formation of supranational states and the much vaunted globalization of culture led many to believe there would be a progressive dilution of national identities and a growing agglomeration of places and nations into larger state units Precisely the reverse has taken place This book explores the connections between identity and homeland showing how a place may be perceived as archetypal endowed with love and celebrated in music and poetry yet be a pretext for violence and war It examines the evolution of ideas about identity and their manifestations in a wide variety of settings from the former Soviet Union to the island states of the South Pacific

Geographers T. W. Freeman, 2016-01-28 An annual collection of studies of individuals who have made major contributions to the development of geography and geographical thought Subjects are drawn from all periods and from all parts of the world and include famous names as well as those less well known explorers independent thinkers and scholars Each paper describes the geographer's education life and work and discusses their influence and spread of academic ideas Each study includes a select bibliography and brief chronology The work includes a general index and a cumulative index of geographers listed in volumes published to date A History of the Faculty of Arts at the University of Adelaide 1876-2012

Nick Harvey, Jean Fornasiero, Greg McCarthy, Clem Macintyre, Carl Crossin, 2012 The Bachelor of Arts BA was the first recognised degree at the University of Adelaide Although informal classes for some subjects were held at the University between 1873 and 1875 the first official University lecture was a Latin lecture at 10 am on Monday 28 March 1876 This was followed by lectures in Greek English and Mental Philosophy By 1878 the first BA student Thomas Ainslie Caterer completed his studies for the BA degree and in 1879 became the first graduate of the University of Adelaide Even though the BA was the first degree it was not until eight years later in 1887 that the Faculty of Arts was inaugurated after the Faculty of Law in 1884 a Board of Studies in Music in 1885 and the Faculty of Medicine in 1885 Following the creation of a separate science degree in 1882 many scientific subjects were removed from the BA For the next five years the subjects were Latin Greek Mathematics Natural Philosophy Logic English History and Comparative Philology Later other subjects such as French German and Political Economy were added toward the end of the nineteenth century In 1897 the Elder Conservatorium of Music was created as the first music school of its type in Australia although at that time it was not part of the Faculty of Arts

In the first 50 years of the University's existence less than ten BA students graduated each year. At the start of the 21st century this figure had climbed to over 300 BA graduates per year but what is interesting is that by 2010 the number of BA graduates was equalled by the number of graduates from separate named degrees within the Faculty plus 70 Music graduates. In addition during the first decade of the twenty first century there were over 60 coursework postgraduates plus more than 40 research postgraduates graduating each year.

The Shaping of America: A Geographical Perspective on 500 Years of History D. W. Meinig, 1986-01-01 This study discusses how an immense diversity of ethnic and religious groups became sorted into a set of distinct regional societies in North America.

Weltmeere Alexander Kraus, Martina Winkler, 2014-03-12 This volume presents pathbreaking studies on diverse human approaches to the ocean. Focusing on the era from the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries the authors explore numerous fields of the oceans cultural history. They describe in depth not only the process of scientification but also the modern wish to domesticate and aestheticize the sea to structure it and put it to economic use. To describe these processes also means to challenge a fundamental assumption of a general and almost universal human perception of the seas as other different and empty. The chapters of this volume advocate a different and non traditional approach to the history of the sea. An approach based less on the well known myths of othering but rather on a genuine interest in a pluralistic concept of cultural history. This claim is supported by both systematic and empirical arguments. The range of topics explored in this volume includes among others the development of the aquarium Japanese whaling soundscapes of the polar seas psychological theories on humans and the sea the oceans in fiction oceanography in late nineteenth century and Russian maritime expansion.

Biographical Memoirs of Fellows, X Ron Johnston, 2011-12-15 Seventeen obituaries of recently deceased Fellows of the British Academy.

Foundational Fictions in South Australian History Carolyn Collins, Paul Sendziuk, 2018-10-15 In this lively provocative collection some of Australia's leading historians and a Miles Franklin shortlisted historical novelist challenge established myths narratives and beautiful lies about South Australia's past. Some are unmasked as false stories that mask brutal realities like colonial violence while others are revealed as simplistic versions of more complex truths. Each generation writes history that speaks to its own interests and concerns write historians Paul Ashton and Anna Clark. In Foundational Fictions in South Australian History which grew out of a series of public lectures at the University of Adelaide an impressive range of contributors suggest different ways in which familiar narratives of South Australia can be interpreted. These essays tap into wider debates too about the nature and purpose of history and the history wars first flamed by John Howard. Stuart Macintyre highlights South Australia's central role in several national events. Humphrey McQueen questions the origins and influence of the money behind South Australia's so called progressive founding. Lucy Treloar suggests historians can learn from novelists when it comes to understanding the past. Steven Anderson argues that Don Dunstan's achievement in abolishing capital punishment owed much to a historical movement. And Carolyn Collins highlights the role of anti conscription group Save Our Sons SOS in not just ending the Vietnam War but broadening the appeal of the anti war movement
