Melville Capper, H. Morgan Williams, 1958 Marriage, Sex, and Procreation Steven Schafer, 2019-09-09 The contemporary church's debate on the inclusion of same sex individuals and their relationships has devolved into diametrically opposed positions Rather than resolving the argument the conversation between the two sides reflects the impasse that is taking place in denominations across the West It is clear that the dispute cannot be resolved while couched in these terms In this timely work Steven Schafer invites the reader to move beyond the terms of the current debate toward the underlying doctrinal concerns so often glossed over by that discussion This book is a work of hermeneutics that engages the contemporary discussion on the legitimacy of same sex relationships with the grand theological narrative handed down by the church By placing four contemporary revisionists in dialogue with the work of Augustine the book provides language and theological avenues to reframe the debate and contributes to the church's ongoing discernment

Christian Marriage David Ayers,2019-02-06 Why should we care about marriage There is a lot of confusion about the purpose of marriage today outside the church as well as within it Written by a distinguished Christian sociologist Christian Marriage is a theologically rich biblically robust and sociologically informed treatise on the nature and value of marriage Drawing on recent social science research empirical data and social history Ayers paints a picture of marriage as an institution meant for human flourishing Along the way Ayers addresses such topics as Dating and selection of a spouse The
