Sex Confronting Sexuality:

Sex Confronting Sexuality Kerry Phelps, 1993-04-01 Confronting Sexual Harassment Anna-Maria Marshall, 2017-03-02 Examining the relationship between law and social change in the context of employees everyday problems with sexual harassment this volume elaborates a framework for studying the role of law in everyday acts of resistance what the author calls the legal consciousness of injustice The framework situates the analysis in the context of a specific social problem and its related legal domain It de centres the law by accounting for the way that social movements counter movements policy makers and powerful institutions frame the debate surrounding the social problem Drawing on frame analysis developed in social movement studies this aspect of the approach specifically incorporates other schema and shows how law supports both oppositional and dominant interpretations of experience Following the stages of a dispute the framework then examines the way that people use frames to make sense of their experiences A Review of Sexual Misconduct by Basic Training Instructors at Lackland Air Force Base United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services, 2013 Contemporary Male Sexuality Barry McCarthy, Emily McCarthy, 2020-12-29 This accessible guide confronts myths and pressures surrounding men and sex promoting a positive and healthy model of male sexuality that replaces traditional expectations The chapters in this book engage with cultural assumptions about male sexuality from harmful early messaging to the importance of enjoying intimacy pleasure and eroticism over the age of 60 The authors challenge the effects of toxic masculinity and traditional gendered roles in sex celebrating sexual diversity confronting double standards and empowering men and couples to develop an equitable sexual bond Case studies and psychosexual skill exercises are integrated throughout to make each concept personal and concrete and incorporate the Good Enough Sex GES model to promote an authentic sexual self throughout the lifespan With a focus on mutual consent and pleasure Contemporary Male Sexuality offers a new model of male sexuality that helps men and couples achieve a satisfying secure and sexual bond replacing damaging expectations with healthy sexual values Nachtrags- und Registerband Rudolf Sieverts, Hans J. Sexual Terrorism in the Eastern Provinces of the Democratic Republic of Congo Stefan Kirchner, 2008-11-17 Document from the year 2008 in the subject Law European and International Law Intellectual Properties Universit Paris Sorbonne Paris IV language English abstract About 5 4 million people have been killed in the wars in the Democratic Republic of Congo D R C the former Zaire 45 000 die every month and hundreds of thousands of women have been raped here in recent years Wartime rapes are anything but new and have been employed not only to terrorize the population but also as weapon of genocide in Rwanda Bosnia and Darfur The Eastern Congolese provinces of North and South Kivu have been affected by particular gruesome acts of violence and thousands of victims suffer from rape induced fistulae ruptures of the walls which separate the victim s vagina from her rectum According to UN staff and doctors in the region all armed groups in the region are involved in rapes and despite the 2002 Pretoria Accord which put an official end to the war attacks and rapes continue to this very day Many survivors are forced out of their homes and their families abandoned and left to fend for themselves Therefore apart from medical treatment and psychological counseling there is a strong demand for justice But due to the weak position of women in Congolese society justice is much harder to get by than medical treatment Although the Congolese Penal Code and Military Penal Code penalize these crimes the reaction by the Congolese government to the atrocities remains insufficient making a solution based on Congolese criminal law unlikely The practical application of the D R C s domestic laws is found wanting and the law does not have the deterrent effect which is required to prevent future atrocities also due to the traditional position of women in Congolese society continues to be reflected in the law According to Art 448 of the D R C s family code a married woman has to obtain her husband s permission to bring a case to court which provides a major obstacle on the road to justice This book deals with the multidimensional aspects of the problem which range from medicine and psychology to social issues and the quest for justice In the latter part we will examine not only the background by looking at relevant rules of International Human Rights Law and International Humanitarian Law but also look at legal responses to these crimes both on a national level in the D R C as well as on an international level and with the question of how justice can be achieved for rape victims in a country ravaged by war in which women continue to be second class citizens
