Horses have accompanied me my whole life For a long time I believed that it was my job to correct them and to teach them something I only understood relatively late that this goes both ways best Today I know the horses have made me who I am today They are my best friends my teachers and my therapists They are straight much smarter than we think and loyal They reflect us and always give us the chance to do better If they love they will never use their speed and strength against us and above all they can forgive and have infinite patience With this book with my personal experience I tried to give back some of their gifts I wish that more riders and horse people have similar experiences as I did and are able to meet their horses and perhaps even their fellow human beings with an open heart patience and love Human-Animal Relationships in Equestrian Sport and Leisure Katherine Dashper, 2016-10-04 Provides an in depth analysis of human horse relationships in equestrian sport and leisure Contains original research on the ways that human society is structured around interaction with
