Red Army Order of Battle in the WWII, June to December 1941 Maximino Argüelles Martínez, 2018-08-02 FRONTOVİK was the name that the veterans who served in the Soviet Armed Forces across the Great Patriotic War between 1941 and 1945 were known. The purpose of this FRONTOVİK is to reflect the structure and deployment of the Red Army throughout the year 1941. This work is part of a global monthly study from June 1941 to September 1945. The main sources for this study were the documents published by the Department of Military History of the Ministry of Defence of the Soviet Union in 1963 containing data from June 22 to December 1 1941 and the works of Colonel David M Glantz along with numerous secondary sources. All the images, illustrations, tactical symbols and maps were made by the author as a personal tribute to the veterans that served in those units.

Flying Guns World War II Emmanuel Gustin, Anthony Williams, 2003-06-08. This book describes the history of aircraft guns, their ammunition and their installations in aircraft. It commences with a technical history covering the development of guns, their ammunition and related issues such as mountings and sights. This is followed by chapters on aircraft installations covering all nations and an evaluation of their use in combat. Appendices include comprehensive tables of the gun installations of World War II combat aircraft with details and illustrations of the guns used and specifications of their ammunition. There has never before been a comprehensive description of World War II aircraft gun armament. This book has been written with the aim of being the definitive work on this subject dealing with armament of all participating air forces. Every technical aspect has been covered: gun design in the full range of sizes from small caliber machine guns to heavy cannon; ammunition types and their use; fixed, flexible and turreted installations and gun sights. Comparative drawings and specifications of service weapons are provided plus illustrations and data concerning their ammunition.
