Barbara Miller Read-aloud Virginia Hamilton,1997 Twelve trickster tales that show the migration of African culture to America via the West Indies The Caribbean Story Finder Sharon Barcan Elswit,2017-11-02 The Caribbean islands have a vibrant oral folklore In Jamaica the clever spider Anansi who outsmarts stronger animals is a symbol of triumph by the weak over the powerful The fables of the foolish Juan Bobo who tries to bring milk home in a burlap bag illustrate facets of traditional Puerto Rican life Conflict over status identity and power is a recurring theme in a story from Trinidad a young bull raised by his mother in secret challenges his tyrannical father who has killed all the other males in the herd One in a series of folklore reference guides by the author this volume shares summaries of 438 tales some in danger of disappearing retold in English and Creole from West African European and slave indigenous cultures in 24 countries and territories Tales are grouped in themed sections with a detailed subject index and extensive links to online sources Book Crush Nancy Pearl,2009-09-29 Do you remember your first book crush You know the first time a book completely captured your imagination transported you to a magical place or introduced you to a lifelong friend you will never forget In Book Crush popular librarian and reading enthusiast Nancy Pearl reminds us why we fell for reading in the first place how completely consuming and life changing a good book can be Pearl offers more than 1 000 crush worthy books organized into over 100 recommended reading lists aimed at youngest middle grade and teen readers From picture books to chapter books YA fiction and nonfiction Pearl has developed more smart and interesting thematic lists of books to enjoy Parents teachers and librarians are often puzzled by the unending choices for reading material for young people It starts when the kids are toddler and doesn't end until high school graduation What's good what's not and what's going to hold their interest Popular librarian Nancy Pearl points the way in Book Crush Good Books Matter Larry Swartz,Debbie Nyman,2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children's books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level Virginia Hamilton Julie K. Rubini,2017-06-29 Long before she wrote The House of Dies Drear M C Higgins the Great and many other children's classics Virginia Hamilton grew up among her extended family near Yellow Springs Ohio where her grandfather had been brought as a baby through the Underground Railroad The family stories she heard as a child fueled her imagination and the freedom to roam the farms and woods nearby trained her to be a great observer In all Hamilton wrote forty one books each driven by a focus on the known the remembered and the imagined particularly within the lives of African Americans Over her thirty five year career Hamilton received every major award for children s literature This new biography gives us the whole story of Virginia s creative genius her passion for nurturing young readers and her clever way of crafting stories they d love A Ring of Tricksters Virginia Hamilton,1997 Twelve trickster tales that show the migration of African culture to America via the West Indies Liberation Literature Virginia Hamilton,2024-09-17 A monumental collection by one of America s greatest authors of children s literature and the launch of a new imprint ReLIT that republishes lost classics for a modern readership Virginia Hamilton 1936 2002 was not only one of the most magnificent writers who ever lived winning honors such as the Newbery Medal Newbery Honor National Book Award and the Coretta Scott King Award for classics like The House of Dies Drear The People Could Fly M C Higgins the Great and Her Stories she was one of the greatest thinkers we ever had on children s literature Born to a family of storytellers she wove into her books and thoughts a deep concern with memory tradition and generational legacy especially as they helped define the lives of African Americans from the days of slavery onward Hamilton described her work as liberation literature This landmark book since fallen out of print and now lovingly restored and repackaged in this gorgeous edition brings together her essays speeches and interviews into one thought provoking incisive inspiring whole Presented in a high quality flexibound binding Liberation Literature also features a foreword by Laura Pegasus founder of Kweli an introduction by Dr Rudine Sims Bishop the mother of multicultural children s literature and a full color frontispiece portrait of Virginia Hamilton illustrated by Caldecott Medalists Leo Diane Dillon It is a must have for anyone interested in writing the history of African American representation children s literature and literature overall

Venture Into Cultures Olga R. Kuharets,2001-05 Contains a resource book of multicultural materials and includes program ideas Web sites and recommended children s books that provide students with information on the traditions stories pictures and music from around the world The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Folklore Anand Prahlad,2005-12-30 Contains over seven hundred entries on African American folklore including music art foodways spiritual beliefs and proverbs Children's Literature Diana Mitchell,Pamela Waterbury,Rose Casement,2003 Children s Literature An Invitation to the World is written and organized in a manner that engages the readers and that will instill confidence in teachers when selecting and using literature in their teaching Readers are asked to take a world view of literature what it is how to recognize one s own how to recognize an author s and encouraged to see children s literature through a lens that includes people not like themselves The book tackles tough issues such as gender and racial bias and how they can be insidiously promoted in literature No other book on the market engages readers more than this one Rather than just presenting topics the book asks What can we learn from them In addition the first person narrative involves readers in the discussion rather than simply presenting content to them Elementary and middle school teachers curriculum developers and anyone interested in children's literature     The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Folklore: A-F Anand Prahlad, 2006 Contains over seven hundred entries on African American folklore including music art foodways spiritual beliefs and proverbs     The Storyteller's Sourcebook Margaret Read MacDonald, Brian W. Sturm, 2001 The first edition provides descriptions of folktales and references to more than 700 published sources of folktales The new edition covers folktales from 1983 1999 Both editions include thorough indexing by subject motif title ethnic group and country of origin and a comprehensive bibliography     Great African-American Women Darryl Lyman, 2000 Lists the achievements of over 500 great African American women in history     Myth and Knowing: An Introduction to World Mythology Scott A. Leonard, Michael McClure, 2004 Myth and Knowing is by far the most comprehensive world mythology textbook The text reader format provides both jargon free discussions of current themes and thinkers in the ongoing scholarly conversation about myth and a broad selection of complete myths chosen for literary merit and the cultural sensitivity of their translations Rather than being genre driven the book emphasizes the psychological religious and cultural meanings of myth presenting these with the intent of fostering in students a love of literature     Allyn & Bacon Anthology of Traditional Literature Judith V. Lechner, 2004 Instead of having your students buy individual author volumes e.g. Grimm or Andersen folktales your students will have access in one single volume to a variety of short pieces from different collections and authors This scrupulously researched anthology of traditional literature is a useful tool for making stories from diverse cultures sometimes difficult to find accessible to both students and professors by giving the cultural contexts of international fables folktales myths and legends     American Book Publishing Record, 1998     A Celebration of Literature and Response Marjorie R. Hancock, 2004 Reinforced by teachers' experiences in actual classrooms this book provides a wealth of ideas for projects readings and response based activities that will engage all learners in the joy of reading and responding to literature It blends an appreciation of children's books across all genres with an emphasis on meaningful instructional strategies for literacy programs Coverage of multicultural international literature helps illustrate the universality of themes in children's literature providing a basis for establishing a library of literature that expresses the totality of children's experiences and speaks to children from all cultures and backgrounds Coverage is based on Louise Rosenblatt's transactional theory of reader response and organized around five main celebrations that the author uses as a framework for uniting the findings of reader response theory with quality children's literature and exemplary reflective literature based practice Includes expanded coverage on multicultural international literature including numerous examples of children's literature written and published in other countries Includes extensive coverage of reader responses to literature oral and written responses as well as those made through the visual arts For teachers of Children's Literature Introduces future teachers to the full range of children's responses to literature encourages the use of a variety of strategies to elicit authentic heartfelt meaningful responses from pupils An appendix on children's literature awards Highlights exemplary children's literature across all genres focuses students attention on established standards and offers guidance for choosing literature that meets such standards
