Dramaville is not a place; it's a state of mind , Consumer Central ,1997      Rip-Off Peter T. Maiken,1979      Clone Two Patti Larsen,2012-10-03 Young adult post apocalyptic series Journey I've never agreed with Chime's need to pander to the Crawlers Ande leans past me to look out the window I follow his gaze the glow from the two bulbs casting some light over the dark and lonely station outside It's time we were independent The Crawlers are spooky and untrustworthy say one thing mean another He turns his head face very close to mine They steal kids sometimes never own up to their promises Ande takes a step back smile returning We can just hope there aren't any Crawlers out there He waves beyond him up the tracks Before I get a chance to agree Chime reappears slamming her way through the sliding door Last stop she growls at me Everybody off Trio and her friends have escaped the remains of Los Angeles and the horrible Crawlers intent on her capture finally on their way to New York But the train they ride offers more threats than comfort both from the uncertain track stretching out before them to the infighting and open dislike from train boss Chime and her crew Trio has no choice her heart and soul pushing her across the country toward a task she can't remember and a damaged clone who will call her sister
