Rubinstein, 2014-09-11 For many intelligent people the stuff of history does not consist of the kind of dry as dust investigations of diplomatic economic or political history that most university historians research and write about but the famous topics of history's mysteries who was Jack the Ripper Was there a conspiracy to kill President Kennedy Did Richard III murder the Princes in the Tower What are the mysteries of the ancient Pyramids Not only have a great many books and articles been written on these and similar topics by so called amateur historians but they have generated societies conferences newsletters and television programmes Many people who are not academic historians take a keen interest in these topics and have in some cases made themselves real experts on them with interesting theories of their own Despite all of this however these topics are virtually ignored by academic historians and can be treated with contempt In Shadow Pasts William D Rubinstein a well known and widely published history professor examines seven of the most famous and interesting topics which have been discussed debated examined and written about by amateur historians Each of these mysteries and the theories surrounding them are examined in detail with Professor Rubinstein presenting his own original and sometimes surprising conclusions about what really happened     Secret Commissions Stephen Donovan, Matthew Rubery, 2012-09-12 Lurid controversial and vulnerable to accusations of titillation or rabble rousing the works of Victorian investigative journalism collected here nonetheless brought unseen suffering into the light of day Even today their exposure

has the power to shock As one investigator promised The Report of our Secret Commission will be read to day with a shuddering horror that will thrill throughout the world Secret Commissions brings together nineteen key documents of Victorian investigative journalism Their authors range from well known writers such as Charles Dickens Henry Mayhew and W T Stead to now forgotten names such as Hugh Shimmin Elizabeth Banks and Olive Malvery Collectively they show how unsparing descriptions of social injustice became regular features of English journalism long before the advent of American style muckraking The reports address topics as varied as child abuse animal cruelty juvenile prostitution sweat shops slums gypsies abortion infanticide and other controversial social issues The collection features detailed chapter introductions original illustrations a historical overview of investigative reporting in the nineteenth century press and suggestions for further reading
