Eaton, 2023-07-28 In all of the South Asian subcontinent Bengal was the region most receptive to the Islamic faith This area today is home to the world's second largest Muslim ethnic population How and why did such a large Muslim population emerge there And how does such a religious conversion take place Richard Eaton uses archaeological evidence monuments narrative histories poetry and Mughal administrative documents to trace the long historical encounter between Islamic and Indic civilizations Moving from the year 1204 when Persianized Turks from North India annexed the former Hindu states of the lower Ganges delta to 1760 when the British East India Company rose to political dominance there Eaton explores these moving frontiers focusing especially on agrarian growth and religious change In all of the South Asian subcontinent Bengal was the region most receptive to the Islamic faith This area today is home to the world's second largest Muslim ethnic population How and why did such a large Muslim population emerge there And how does su

The Rise of Islam and the Bengal Frontier, 1204-1760 Richard Maxwell Eaton, 1993 In all of the South Asian subcontinent Bengal was the region most receptive to the Islamic faith This area today is home to the world's second largest Muslim ethnic population How and why did such a large Muslim population emerge there And how does such a religious conversion take place Richard Eaton uses archaeological evidence monuments narrative histories poetry and Mughal administrative documents to trace the long historical encounter between Islamic and Indic civilizations Moving from the year 1204 when Persianized Turks from North India annexed the former Hindu states of the lower Ganges delta to 1760 when the British East India Company rose to political dominance there Eaton explores these moving frontiers focusing especially on agrarian growth and religious change

Swami Vivekananda and Non-Hindu Traditions Stephen E. Gregg, 2019-03-15 The Hindu thinker Swami Vivekananda 1863 1902 was and remains an important figure both within India and in the West where he was notable for preaching Vedanta Scholarship surrounding Vivekananda is dominated by hagiography and his misappropriation by the political Hindu Right This work demonstrates that Vivekananda was no simplistic pluralist as portrayed in hagiographical texts nor narrow exclusivist as portrayed by some modern Hindu nationalists but a thoughtful complex inclusivist The book shows that Vivekananda formulated a hierarchical and inclusivistic framework of Hinduism based upon his interpretations of a four fold system of Yoga It goes on to argue that Vivekananda understood his formulation of Vedanta to be universal and applied it freely to non Hindu traditions and in so doing demonstrates that Vivekananda was consistently critical of low level spirituality not only in non Hindu traditions but also within Hinduism Demonstrating that Vivekananda is best understood within the context of Advaitic primacy rather than Hindu chauvinism this book will be of interest to scholars of Hinduism and South Asian religion and of South Asian diaspora communities and religious studies more generally

Bangladesh Salahuddin Ahmed, 2004 A P H Birth of a Colonial City Ranjit Sen, 2019-03-04 Long before Calcutta was discovered by Job Charnock it thrived by the Hugli since times immemorial This book and its companion Colonial Calcutta is a biographical account of the when the how and the what of a global city and its emergence under colonial rule in the 1800s Ranjit Sen traces the story of how three clustered villages became the hub of the British Empire and a centre of colonial imagination He examines the historical and geopolitical factors that were significant in securing its prominence and its subsequent urbanization which was a colonial experience without an antecedent Further it sheds light on Calcutta s early search for identity how it superseded interior towns and flourished as the seat of power for its hinterland developed its early institutions while its municipal administration slowly burgeoned A sharp analysis of the colonial enterprise this volume lays bare the underbelly of the British Raj It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern history South Asian history urban studies British Studies and area studies

Bangladesh Ali Riaz,2016-06-08 Bangladesh is a country of paradoxes The eighth most populous country of the world it has attracted considerable attention from the international media and western policy makers in recent years often for the wrong reasons corruption natural disasters caused by its precarious geographical location and volatile political situations with several military coups following its independence from Pakistan in 1971 Institutional corruption growing religious intolerance and Islamist militancy have reflected the weakness of the state and undermined its capacity Yet the country has demonstrated significant economic potential and has achieved successes in areas such as female education population control and reductions in child mortality Ali Riaz here examines the political processes which engendered these paradoxical tendencies taking into account the problems of democratization and the effects this has had and will continue to have in the wider South Asian region This comprehensive and unique overview of political and historical developments in Bangladesh since 1971 will provide essential reading for observers of Bangladesh and South Asia Der Islam ,1999 Bengalens

After Tamerlane John Darwin, 2008-02-05 The author of The End of the British Empire traces the rise and fall of large scale empires in the centuries after the death of the emperor Tamerlane in 1405 in an account that challenges conventional beliefs about the rise of the western world and contends that European ascendancy may be a transitory event

The Felt Community Rajat Kanta Ray, 2003 This study of the pre history of Indian nationalism examines a relatively unexplored field of study in Indian history It uses a novel perspective at least in Indian historiography the study of emotions feelings and sentiments as bonds in the construction of a felt community before the emergence of modern Indian nationalism The author argues that the nation might be construed by modernity but it is likely to be rooted in older sentiments and ideas The book addresses questions about Indian identity in the aftermath of the demolition of the Babri Masjid Although a historical work based on primary sources it has a political and current relevance for the national states in the Indian subcontinent It historicizes inter community relations beyond the rubric of mere communalism which is what most other writers do This study will interest historians sociologists political scientists and the general reader
