Japanese Women, Class and the Tea Ceremony Kaeko Chiba, 2010-09-13 This book examines the complex relationship between class and gender dynamics among tea ceremony chad practitioners in Japan Focusing on practitioners in a provincial city Akita the book surveys the rigid hierarchical chad system at grass roots level Making critical use of Bourdieu's idea of cultural capital it explores the various meanings of chad for Akita women and argues that chad has a cultural economic social and symbolic value and is used as a tool to improve gender and class equality Chad practitioners focus on tea procedure and related aspects of chad such as architecture flower arranging gardening and pottery Initially only men were admitted to chad women were admitted in the Meiji period 1868 1912 and now represent the majority of practitioners The author a chad practitioner and descendant of chad teachers provides a thorough honest account of Akita women based on extensive participant observation and interviews Where most literature on Japan focuses on metropolitan centres such as Kitakyushu and Tokyo

this book is original in both its subject and scope Also as economic differences between metropolitan and non metropolitan areas have become more pronounced it is timely to explore the specific class and gender issues affecting non metropolitan women This book contributes not only to the ethnographic literature on chad and non metropolitan women in Japan but also to the debates on research methodology and the theoretical discussion of class

Marriage Migrants of Japanese Women in Australia Takeshi Hamano,2019-05-30 This book investigates the experience of Japanese women who have immigrated to Australia through marriage to a local partner Based on long term participant observations gathered with a Japanese ethnic association in Sydney and on in depth interviews with the association s members it examines the ways in which the women remould themselves in Australia by constructing gendered selves that reflect their unique migratory circumstances through cross border marriage In turn the book argues that the women tend to embrace expressions of Japanese femininity that they once viewed negatively and that this is due to their lack of social skills and access to the cultural capital of mainstream Australian society Re molding the self through conventional Japanese notions of gender ironically provides them with a convincing identity that of minority migrant women Nevertheless by analyzing these women s engagement with a Japanese ethnic association in a suburb of Sydney the book also reveals a nuanced sense of ambivalence a tension between the women s Japanese community and their lives in Australia Accordingly the book provides a fresh perspective on interdisciplinary issues of gender and migration in a globalized world and engages with a wide range of academic disciplines including sociology of migration sociology of culture cultural anthropology cultural studies Japanese studies Asian studies gender studies family studies migration studies and qualitative methodologies

"We are the Mods" Christine Jacqueline Feldman,2009 Drawing on archival research oral history interviews and participant observation this examination of the adoption and adaptation of Mod style across geographic space also maps its various interpretations over time from the early 1960s to the present The book traces the Mod youth culture from its genesis in the dimly lit clubs of London s Soho where it began as a way for young people to reconfigure modernity after the chaos of World War II to its contemporary country specific expressions By examining Mod culture in the United States Germany and Japan alongside the United Kingdom We Are the Mods contrasts the postwar development of Mod in those countries that lost the war with those that won The book illuminates the culture s fashion music iconography and gender aesthetics to create a compelling portrait of a transnational subculture Book Jacket Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2004 Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Bust ,2003 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2000 Who's Who in the West Marquis Who's Who, LLC,2002-09 The Annual American Catalogue 1886-1900 ,1896 Comfort ,1891 Who's who in Finance and Industry ,1999 Alternative Press Index ,1997 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Who's Who of American Women 2004-2005 Inc.
