Families in Society Linda McKie, Sarah Cunningham-Burley, Jo Campling, 2005 Acknowledging the increasing diversity and complexity of families this innovative book proposes a new conceptual framework for understanding families and other relationships that both challenges and attempts to reconcile traditional and contemporary approaches Using the notion of boundaries the book shifts thinking from families as entities to families as relationship processes Emphasising the processes that underlie boundary construction and reconstruction suggests that the key to understanding family life is the process of relationship formation The ideas of entity boundary margins and hybridity provide a framework for understanding the diverse and often contradictory ways in which families contribute to society Families in society makes a significant contribution to the academic literature on families and is essential reading for social science students social researchers policy makers and practitioners interested in families and relationships

Comparing Social Policies Misa Izuhara, Rob Sykes, Peter Alcock, 1998 Europe is undergoing a fundamental shift in its economic political and social structures and this forms the context for changes in social and other public policies This book describes and analyzes some of these changes discussing the pattern of both convergence and divergence in the late 1990s

Terrorism, Risk, and the City Jon Coaffee, 2003 The development of defensive strategies encompassing the fortification and privatization of the city has attracted significant attention during recent years and has become particularly relevant in the aftermath of September 11th Dealing with issues of risk security and the spatial restructuring of contemporary western cities this book examines how the perceived risk of terrorist attack led to changes in the physical form and institutional infrastructure of the city of London during the 1990s when the city was a prime terrorist target The book analyses how the various formal and informal strategies adopted in the City attempted to reduce both the physical and financial risk of terrorism This was undertaken through a series of place specific security initiatives and risk management policies which led to increased fortification a substantial rise in terrorism insurance premiums and changing institutional relations at a variety of spatial scales It also argues that the security measures deployed were developed not in terms of an anti terrorist effort but in relation to the unintended by products of these approaches such as crime reduction and enhanced traffic management capabilities

 Marston, 2004 Despite the fact that policy is increasingly led by the mass media social policy research has so far focused on variables and quantitative measurement rather than cultural meanings and moral welfare debates Taking a critical examination of social policy on public housing by way of illustration this book demonstrates how critical discourse theory can be used in applied research It shows how the theory and method of critical discourse analysis can be worked together in an intricate and accessible way New Waves In Political Philosophy Boudewijn de Bruin, Christopher F. Zurn, 2009-02-15 This collection of essays attempts something entirely novel to provide a snapshot of the new work that is being conducted in political philosophy written by up and coming figures in this area Spirit of the Place Péter György, 2008-10 A fascinating journey into the often unsettling and shadowy worlds of public memory and memorializing in Europe and the United States of America Inspired and insightful readings of museums monuments libraries and other memory spaces that help to rethink many contemporary orthodoxies about recollective practices cultural heritage and the very relationship between past present and future Expresses the complex relationship between history media arts politics and culture Gyorgy gives first hand account analysis and criticism about places of memory with photos accompanying the text The presented museums range wide in space and genre Holocaust sites museums dedicated to Sigmund Freud all over Europe as well as leading collections of contemporary art Published by the Center for Media and Communications Studies of the Central European University distributed by CEU Press Postcommunism Richard Sakwa, 1999 Postcommunism has joined the list of terms like postmodernity and postcolonialism that defines the spirit of our age Designed for undergraduate courses and an essential reference for those more familiar with the field this authoritative text examines the validity and ramifications of the concept and places it in the broader context of global change The New Demographic Regime United Nations. Economic Commission for Europe, United Nations Population Fund, 2005 This publication contains papers presented at the European Population Forum 2004 held in Geneva in January 2004 under the auspices of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe UNECE and the United Nations Population Fund UNFP The Forum discussed a range of issues organised under four key themes global population and development trends from a European perspective childbearing and parenting in low fertility countries morbidity mortality and reproductive health challenges in transition economies international migration and ways of promoting management and integration
