Ritual Humor In Highland Chiapas:

Ritual Humor in Highland Chiapas Victoria Reifler Bricker, 2010-06-28 Zinacantan Chamula and Chenalh are neighboring Mayan communities situated in highland Chiapas Mexico near the city of San Cristobal Las Casas The inhabitants of the three communities speak dialects of the Tzotzil language Five religious fiestas celebrated by these communities in honor of their saints provide the data for Victoria Bricker's comparative study of ritual humor In Chenalh and Chamula performances of ritual humor are concentrated in the five day period of a single fiesta while in Zinacantan similar performances are distributed over three fiestas In these fiesta settings performers in distinctive costumes make obscene and sacrilegious remarks in the context of religious ritual These performances are defined as ritual humor because they occur only in ritual settings Bricker's study constitutes a controlled cross cultural comparison of ceremonial or ritual humor in its social and cultural setting Much new information is provided in verbatim texts recorded during actual fiesta performances The study reveals that although the three communities share a common pool of ritual symbols they elaborate them differently in ritual humor The study analyzes the symbolic expression of values social organization and interethnic relations
