William E. Mann

Right From Wrong:

Right and Wrong Charles Fried, 1978 Debating Health Care Ethics, Second Edition Patrick Findler, Doran Smolkin, Warren Bourgeois, 2019-05-28 In this updated second edition Debating Health Care Ethics explores contemporary moral challenges in health care providing students with the essential tools to understand and critically evaluate the leading arguments in the field and to develop their own arguments on important moral problems in health care Written in a clear and concise way the textbook's first three chapters explore the nature of arguments and ethical theories while the remaining chapters introduce students to moral problems in health care through case studies and dramas that feature complex scenarios involving patients family members and health care providers Each case study and drama is followed by a lively debate where the authors defend their unique approaches to the dilemma This new edition now includes more gender inclusive dramas an expanded discussion of feminist ethics a case study on euthanasia that highlights changes to Canadian law and an update on fetal consciousness that informs the debate on abortion Emphasizing critical issues in health care from a Canadian perspective this essential textbook will benefit students in philosophy nursing and health studies

Augustine's Confessions William E. Mann, 2006-03-28 Unique in all of literature the Confessions combines frank and profound psychological insight into Augustine's formative years along with sophisticated and beguiling reflections on some of the most important issues in philosophy and theology The Confessions discloses Augustine's views about the nature of infancy and the acquisition of language his own sinful adolescence his early struggle with the problem of evil his conversion to Christianity his puzzlement about the capacities of human memory and the nature of time and his views about creation and biblical interpretation The essays contained in this volume by some of the most distinguished recent and contemporary thinkers in the field insightfully explore these Augustinian themes not only with an eye to historical accuracy but also to gauge the philosophical acumen of Augustine's reflections School work. with revisions, additions by J.W. Jarvis Frederick John Gladman, 1898 Thomas Reid on Freedom and Morality William L. Rowe, 1991 In this succinct and well written book one of our most eminent philosophers provides a fresh reading of the view of freedom and morality developed by Thomas Reid 1710-1796 Although contemporary theorists have written extensively about the Scottish philosopher's contributions to the theory of knowledge this is the first book length study of his contributions to the controversy over freedom and necessity William L Rowe argues that Reid developed a subtle systematic theory of moral freedom based on the idea of the human being as a free and morally responsible agent He carefully reconstructs the theory and explores the intellectual background to Reid's views in the work of John Locke Samuel Clarke and Anthony Collins Rowe develops a novel account of Reid's conception of free action and relates it to contemporary arguments that moral responsibility for an action implies the power to have done otherwise Distilling from Reid's work a viable version of the agency theory of freedom and responsibility he suggests how Reid's theory can be defended against the major objections both historical and contemporary that have been advanced against it Blending to good effect historical and philosophical analysis Thomas Reid on Freedom and Morality should interest philosophers political theorists and intellectual historians Insanity and Its Treatment Samuel Worcester (M.D.),1882 The Acquisition of Scalar Implicatures Stefanie Röhrig,2010 A Homiletic Encyclopaedia of Illustrations in Theology and Morals Robert Aitkin Bertram,1889 Outlines of Sermons Taken Chiefly from the Published Works of Unitarian Writers Unitarian Writers,1872 The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1872 The Writings of Harriet Beecher Stowe Harriet Beecher Stowe,1899 The Science of Society Stephen Pearl Andrews,1888 Religious Reconstruction Minot Judson Savage,1888 Quarterly Review of the Evangelical Lutheran Church ,1885 Cobbett's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain.
