Right Madness On Skye Poems:

The Right Madness on Skye: Poems Richard Hugo, 1980-05-17 In an essay on Richard Hugo the poet James Wright called him one of the precious few poets of our age who has and sustains an abiding vision Hugo took that vision to Skye with him he makes Scottish history legends and triggering towns his own in these new poems just as he has earlier done in poems of the American West And in making them his own he makes them our own as well He continues to be in Wright's words a great poet true to our difficult life In September of 1977 Richard Hugo and his family went to live for several months on the Isle of Skye off the coast of Scotland One of the results of that experience is this new and impressive volume of poems

The Right Madness on Skye Richard Hugo, 1998 The Real West Marginal Way: A Poet's Autobiography Richard Hugo, 1992-06-17 Of Richard Hugo's Making Certain It Goes On David Wagoner has written Richard Hugo spared himself and us no pains or joys in making the wonderful vigorous original poems brought together in this single collection His was and is a very important voice in modern American poetry Hugo was also an editor of the Yale Younger Poets series and a distinguished teacher and master of the personal essay Now many of his essays have been assembled and arranged by Ripley Hugo the poet's widow and a writer and teacher and Lois and James Welch writers and close friends of the poet Together the essays constitute a compelling autobiographical narrative that takes Hugo from his lonely childhood through the war years and his working and creative life to an interview just before his death in 1982 William Matthews also a friend of Hugo's has written an introduction We are called human Michael S. Allen, 1982 Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The

Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States

The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer's current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study

Subject Catalog, 1980 Library of Congress, 1980 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Poetry Criticism, Stand Magazine, Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-07 Antæus Daniel Halpern, 1981 Crazy Horse, 1982 The Greenwood Encyclopedia of American Poets and Poetry Jeffrey Gray, 2006 The most comprehensive reference on American poetry ever assembled this encyclopedia includes more than 900 alphabetically arranged entries contributed by approximately 350 scholars Written for students and general readers this set covers poetry from the colonial era to the present and gives special attention to contemporary poets and their works Multicultural in scope the Encyclopedia covers poets genres critics poetic terms and movements Its entries range from Caribbean to Confessional Poetry from Dada to Eco poetics from Gay and Lesbian Poetry to Literary Magazines New Formalism and more

American Poetry Observed Joe David Bellamy, 1988 In American Poetry Observed twenty six major contemporary poets lead us to a clearer understanding of their elusive craft and in the process reveal a great deal about themselves Jacket Rain in the Forest, Light in the Trees Rich Ives, 1983 Hope and Dread in Montana Literature Ken Egan, 2003 The rich literary tradition of Montana contends author Ken Egan Jr reflects a catastrophic vision of the West that shows the horrors of domination and the foolish and destructive habits of the imperial heart Since the 1860s Montana s writers have depicted struggles for survival in the state s dramatically beautiful but heartbreaking landscape and for decency in a region characterized by the headlong exploitation of both natural and human resources So too has Montana s political culture reflected the strife between the state s utopian potential and its often apocalyptic realities Egan s objective in this intellectually provocative and deeply perceptive survey of Montana s literary history is to demonstrate the roots of the state s literature in its conflicted history and complex mixture of racial and ethnic traditions and at the same time to offer the possibility of thoughtful solutions to the West s daunting social and environmental dilemmas through the insights of some of the state s best writers From the narratives of early explorers and ranchers Native Americans and settler women through the works of such major twentieth century luminaries as A B Guthrie and Ivan Doig Egan traces the evolution of Montanans early fantastic dreams of economic religious and cultural success into failure and despair violence and tragedy Yet side by side with these tales of woe are tales of endurance and even triumph evidence of the strength and creative potential of the state s people
