Greco-Roman Cultural Context D. Clint Burnett, 2021-01-18 Given the dearth of non-messianic interpretations of Psalm 110:1 in non-Christian Second Temple Jewish texts why did it become such a widely used messianic proof-text in the New Testament and early Christianity Previous attempts to answer this question have focused on why the earliest Christians first began to use Ps 110:1 The result is that these proposals do not provide an adequate explanation for why first-century Christians living in the Greek East employed the verse and also applied it to Jesus's exaltation I contend that two Greco-Roman politico-religious practices royal and imperial temple and throne sharing which were cross-cultural rewards that Greco-Roman communities bestowed on beneficent pious and divinely approved rulers contributed to the widespread use of Ps 110:1 in earliest Christianity This means that the earliest Christians interpreted Jesus's heavenly session as messianic and thus political as well as religious in nature The Works of Thomas Goodwin, vol. 1 Thomas Goodwin, 2009-04-07
