Right To Life And Death:

The Metaphysics of Death John Martin Fischer, 1993 This collection of seventeen essays deals with the metaphysical as opposed to the moral issues pertaining to death For example the authors investigate among other things the issue of what makes death a bad thing for an individual if indeed death is a bad thing This issue is more basic and abstract than such moral questions as the particular conditions under which euthanasia is justified if it is ever justified Though there are important connections between the more abstract questions addressed in this book and many contemporary moral issues such as euthanasia suicide and abortion the primary focus of this book is on metaphysical issues concerning the nature of death What is the nature of the harm or bad involved in death If it is not pain what is it and how can it be bad Who is the subject of the harm or bad if the person is no longer alive how can he be the subject of the bad And if he is not the subject who is Can one have harm with no subject When does the harm take place Can a harm take place after its subject ceases to exist If death harms a person can the harm take place before the death occurs If death can be a bad thing would immortality be a desirable alternative This family of questions helps to frame the puzzle of why and how death is bad Other subjects addressed include the Epicurean view that death is not a misfortune for the person who dies the nature of misfortune and benefit the meaningfulness and value of life and the distinction between the life of a person and the life of a living creature who is not a person There is an extensive bibliography that includes science fiction treatments of death and immortality

By Matthew Bacon Assisted in the Fourth and Fifth Volumes by Joseph Sayer and Owen Ruffhead ... The Fourth Edition, Corrected, Etc England,1832     The Law of Life and Death Elizabeth Price Foley,2011-08-01 Are you alive Most people believe that some law defines our status as living or not for all purposes But Foley shows that not being dead isn t necessarily the same as being alive in the eyes of the law The need for more organ transplants and conservation of health care resources is exerting pressure to expand the legal definition of death     The American Lawyer ,1899     Life and Death with Liberty and Justice Germain Gabriel Grisez,Joseph M. Boyle,1979 This is a systematic and detailed treatment of the life and death issues which are currently raised often in confused and intense fashion under the headings of euthanasia or death with dignity There is no single euthanasia question but rather a complex of related matters both legal and ethical The authors analyze euthanasia and find them radically inconsistent with the American ideal of liberty and justice for all The ideal is seen by the authors as a framework for the efforts of those who desire a just protection for the lives of the unborn the retarded the insane and the aged poor The authors demonstrate that fair laws which respect the liberties of all will not for example permit mercy killing or deny deserved medical treatment merely because some people fail to meet standards as established by others for a minimum quality of life Detailed proposals are offered for specific legislation and constitutional amendments to restore or ensure protection for the right to life and other rights The last three chapters of this study bear directly on ethical questions An ethical theory consistent with the sanctity of human life is proposed and the theories underlying proeuthanasia proposals are criticized The author's theory is applied to various matters involving life and death and an ethical defense is provided for the ideal of liberty and justice as a basis for good law from back cover     Federal Register ,1994-06-10     A General Abridgement of Law and Equity Charles Viner,1791     Cyclopædia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature John McClintock,1894     The Doctrine of the Resurrection of the Dead and the Igbo Belief in the "reincarnation" John Iheanyichukwu Obilor,1994 This systematic theological study in comparative religion aims at finding ways of making the mission of the Church more effective in Igboland of Nigeria Three methods were used the main is expository and analytic the focus is anthropological and the end vision is a doctrinal and pastoral dialogue The result is an assertion that a traditional religious belief like the ilo uwa can be studied and evaluated theologically and offered healing by the Gospel message Another result is an assertion that the Church must take inculturation seriously if it must witness to the cultures and peoples of Africa     A Systematic Arrangement of Lord Coke's First Institute of the Laws of England Sir Edward Coke,John Henry Thomas,1836     Treasury of Wisdom, Wit and Humor, Odd Comparisons and Proverbs ,1891     Acts-Revelation. 1838 William Jenks,1837
