Human Rights in Transition Nehal Bhuta,2024 Human Rights in Transition combines rich theoretical reflections with practice informed observations about human rights to consider the present the recent and distant past and the future of human rights Political Economics Torsten Persson,Guido Tabellini,2002-01-25 What determines the size and form of redistributive programs the extent and type of public goods provision the burden of taxation across alternative tax bases the size of government deficits and the stance of monetary policy during the course of business and electoral cycles A large and rapidly growing literature in political economics attempts to answer these questions But so far there is little consensus on the answers and disagreement on the appropriate mode of analysis Combining the best of three separate traditions the theory of macroeconomic policy public choice and rational choice in political science Torsten Persson and Guido Tabellini suggest a unified approach to the field As in modern macroeconomics individual citizens behave rationally their preferences over economic outcomes inducing preferences over policy As in public choice the delegation of policy decisions to elected representatives may give rise to agency problems between voters and politicians And as in rational choice political institutions shape the procedures for setting policy and electing politicians The authors outline a common method of analysis establish several new results and identify the main outstanding problems The Elements of Political Economy Emile de

Laveleye,1884 Principles of Political Economy Wilhelm Roscher,1882 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,2004 Toward a Political Economy of the Commons Cai, Meina,Murtazashvili, Ilia,Brick Murtazashvili, Jennifer,Salahodjaev, Raufhon,2022-01-14 Since Garrett Hardin published The Tragedy of the Commons in 1968 critics have argued that population growth and capitalism contribute to overuse of natural resources and degradation of the global environment They propose coercive state centric solutions This book offers an alternative view Employing insights from new institutional economics the authors argue that property rights competitive markets polycentric political institutions and social institutions such as trust, patience and individualism enable society to conserve natural resources and mitigate harms to the global environment Leadership: Political-economic, Regional Business And Socio-community Contexts Tai Wei Lim, 2020-03-20 Political leadership styles in East Asian states are shaped and influenced by a number of domestic factors. These factors include the type of political system that an East Asian state adopted from their days of independence and decolonization. There is a diverse array of political systems in the region ranging from Western style liberal democracies like Japan and South Korea to autocratic one party states like North Korea. Most other East Asian countries adopt systems somewhere in between these two polar ends. This volume begins with a macro political perspective of leadership. It then looks at case studies of political leadership and the factors that influence the shape and outcome of leadership styles in the region. The book also examines the concept of community leadership and its impact on community well being. Several specific case studies are examined in depth. While examining political leadership from a macro theoretical and empirical perspective, the book also adopts historical anthropological perspectives to analyse case studies. The case studies also examine policy formulation and implementation to look at the role of government in handling community level issues. Finally, the book focuses on economic leadership in international political economy and global business Elite Origins of Democracy and Development in the Muslim World Michael T. Rock, Soli Özel, 2023-12-01 Using an elite consensus conflict analytical frame, this book examines why some majority Muslim countries perform so much better at democracy and/or development than others, questioning received wisdoms that Islam, authoritarianism and underdevelopment go together. Identifying four distinct democracy and development outcomes in the Muslim world, four case studies are interrogated to show that there is more variability in democracy and development outcomes in Muslim majority countries than macro historical studies and aggregate data have shown. By demonstrating that democracy and development outcomes in Muslim countries are the consequence of elite conflict and elite consensus rather than the precepts or institutions of Islam, the book places the competition for power among contending elites rather than Islam at the center of the story of democracy and development in the Muslim world. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of political development, development studies, democratization and autocratization studies, democracy promotion and more broadly comparative politics Human Rights in the Global Political Economy Tony Evans, 2011 Tony Evans critically investigates the theory and practice of human rights in the current global order. Evans covers a range of contentious debates as he considers critiques of the prevailing conceptions of human rights. He then explores the changing global context of human rights issues, the nature and status of human rights within that context and recent institutional responses. With its emphasis on policy and process, his book offers a rich analysis of the politics of today's human rights regime Constitutions of the World Robert L. Maddex, 2008 Offers entries that survey constitutions from 100 nations around the world. Provides an historical overview for each country, emphasizing legal and constitutional development Cyclopaedia of Political Science, Political Economy, and of the Political

History of the United States John Joseph Lalor,1890 Promotion and Protection of All Human Rights, Civil, Political, Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, Including the Right to Development United Nations. General Assembly,2014 The Politics of Labor Thomas Phillips Thompson,1887 Principles of Political Economy with Some of Their Applications to Social Philosophy John Stuart Mill,1898 Political and Civil Rights in the United States ,1967 Briefs for Debate on Current Political, Economic, and Social Topics Walter Du Bois Brookings,Ralph Curtis Ringwalt,1895 Principles of Political Economy John Stuart Mill,1871 The Courier ,1994
