Payne, 2011-02-26 In the year 1770 twenty year old Jacob Harris was called before the king who knew of his great desire to go to the New World across the ocean In respect for the dedicated service of Jacob's father and grandfather to the Crown the king presented him with a land grant of ten thousand acres boat passage and enough gold coins to start a new life in the new land Jacob fell to his knees upon seeing for the first time the magnificent virgin trees and giving the name of Tall Tree to the vast acreage He spent twenty years carving out many acres to plant and acres for grazing and built a large brick house before marrying Ruth now thirty years old whom he first met on the boat as a shy ten year old A little girl at the time telling her mother she just met the only man she would ever consider marrying someday Several years after their marriage they had one son William Jacob even though he purchased slaves to help him and three other white men to clear the land never treated them as slaves taking time to educate them to do things and think on their own William who later inherited the land followed and improved on his father's ideas in the treatment of the black people As a young boy he forged a bond of great friendship with another young boy at the time A boy of the black race who by a quirk of nature grew to a gigantic size A sad time in the period of the Civil War fate brought with her a heavy hand full of tragedies to dump on the beautiful grounds of Tall Tree and its inhabitants The many tragedies that seemed to be unfair in its great toll on the Harris family One was to cause the disappearance of two special gold rings to finally return home from their travels in 1945 and to try once again to bring about the happiness they were forged to do eighty one years ago
