Ringling Brosdeath Defying Acts:

I Wrote This Book Because I Love You Tim Kreider, 2018-02-06 A People Top 10 Book of 2018 The New York Times essayist and author of We Learn Nothing Tim Kreider trains his singular power of observation on his often befuddling relationships with women Psychologists have told him he s a psychologist Philosophers have told him he s a philosopher Religious groups have invited him to speak He had a cult following as a cartoonist But above all else Tim Kreider is an essayist one whose deft prose uncanny observations dark humor and emotional vulnerability have earned him deserved comparisons to David Sedaris Sarah Vowell and the late David Foster Wallace who was himself a fan of Kreider s humor Beautifully written with just enough humor to balance his spikiness Booklist I Wrote This Book Because I Love You focuses Tim s unique perception and wit on his relationships with women romantic platonic and the murky in between He talks about his difficulty finding lasting love and seeks to understand his commitment issues by tracking down the John Hopkins psychologist who tested him for a groundbreaking study on attachment when he was a toddler He talks about his valued female friendships one of which landed him on a circus train bound for Mexico He talks about his time teaching young women at an upstate New York college and the profound lessons they wound up teaching him And in a hugely popular essay that originally appeared in The New York Times he talks about his nineteen year old cat wondering if it s the most enduring relationship he ll ever have In a style reminiscent of Orwell E B White and David Sedaris The New York Times Book Review each of these pieces is heartbreaking brutal and hilarious Judd Apatow and collectively they cement Kreider s place among the best essayists working today

Dollar, 1982 Press Summary - Illinois Information Service Illinois Information Service, 1985 Women and Children First Donald H. Roy, 2008 Twenty three days after the horrible Hartford circus fire July 6 1944 I was born in Hartford Connecticut My mother and aunt lived but 700 feet from the circus grounds Growing up so close to the circus grounds caused me to be haunted by this fire which no one spoke about much and no one adequately explained In the 1980s I began some research on the circus fire and eventually discovered a unique way of retelling this fire's long story First and foremost remember the personal characteristics of those who died then read the documentary account of the fire over the years and in the process consider this author's reflective commentary Starting in the late 1980s I began writing public policy dialogues which turned into five books Dialogues in American Politics Public Policy Dialogues Reuniting America Eleven Multicultural Dialogues The Dialogic Resurgence of Public Intellectuals and State Governments Institutions and Issues My preferred way of writing is dialogic since in politics there are always many different compelling voices and perspectives to consider In this circus fire book there is a dialogue between the documentary evidence the many voices and my own commentary Growing up a New Englander puts me in that tradition of seeking public accountability thus the underlying persistent theme of this book Mud Show Don B.
