Protected Area Governance and Management Graeme L. Worboys,Michael

Lockwood,Ashish Kothari,Sue Feary,Ian Pulsford,2015-04-08 Protected Area Governance and Management presents a compendium of original text case studies and examples from across the world by drawing on the literature and on the knowledge and experience of those involved in protected areas The book synthesises current knowledge and cutting edge thinking from the diverse branches of practice and learning relevant to protected area governance and management It is intended as an investment in the skills and competencies of people and consequently the effective governance and management of protected areas for which they are responsible now and into the future The global success of the protected area concept lies in its shared vision to protect natural and cultural heritage for the long term and organisations such as International Union for the Conservation of Nature are a unifying force in this regard Nonetheless protected areas are a socio political phenomenon and the ways that nations understand govern and manage them is always open to contest and debate The book aims to enlighten educate and above all to challenge readers to think deeply about protected areas their future and their past as well as their present The book has been compiled by 169 authors and deals with all aspects of protected area governance and management It provides information to support capacity development training of protected area field officers managers in charge and executive level managers Man and River Systems Josselin Garnier,J.-M. Mouchel,2013-04-17 The volume focuses on the ecological functioning of rivers which has received less attention than functioning of lakes and reservoirs The selected papers cover a large range of topics relating to aquatic communities eutrophication nutrient dynamics and organic pollution erosion and sediment transport and fate of micropollutants at the basin scale Integrated approaches developed in order to study the ecological functioning of fluvial systems perturbed by human activity are presented This functioning is analysed from the point of view of fundamental research but insights into system management are not neglected This book will be of interest to researchers in the field of aquatic ecology river system functioning and water surface pollution to postgraduate students to the institutions involved in water resource management and to the drinking water and waste water treatment industries It draws information from many large river systems in the world Land-use Changes and the Physical Habitat of Streams Robert B. Jacobson,Suzanne R. Femmer,Rose A. McKenney,2001 Effects of Watershed Development and Management on Aquatic Ecosystems Larry A. Roesner,1997 This collection contains 40 papers on ecosystems in urban areas presented at a conference on the effects of watershed development and management on aquatic ecosystems held in Snowbird Utah August 4 9 1996 Proceedings of the Conference on Coastal Watersheds ,1998 Science and Children ,1999 Forested Wetlands Ariel E. Lugo,Sandra Brown,Mark M. Brinson,1990 Hardbound Forested wetlands are experiencing an unprecedented level of impact by human exploitation There is a fundamental need to bring together existing information on ecological processes and composition of vegetation Perhaps more urgent at this time is the need to chart fruitful research directions that will provide information on the management of this ecologically pivotal resource This book is timely in contributing to both of these needs Written for the professional ecologist and ecosystem manager this unique book explains how forested wetlands function ecologically and how they vary floristically throughout the world Chapters by the editors provide the framework for a simple functional classification of wetlands riverine fringe and basin that is gaining popularity among ecologists and resource managers worldwide Both a world perspective and local flavor is provided by sections written by fifteen seasoned professionals in country Bibliography of Agriculture ,1992-02 New Mexico Quarterly ,1958 Ecology Abstracts ,1994 The New Mexico Quarterly ,1958 New Mexico Quarterly Review ,1958
