The Rise and Decline of the English Working Class 1918-1990 Eric Hopkins, 1991 Imagining the Middle Class Dror Wahrman, 1995-07-13 Why and how did the British people come to see themselves as living in a society centred around a middle class The answer provided by Professor Wahrman challenges most prevalent historical narratives the key to understanding changes in conceptualisations of society the author argues lies not in underlying transformations of social structure in this case industrialisation which supposedly created and empowered the middle class but rather in changing political configurations Firmly grounded in a close reading of an extensive array of sources and supported by comparative perspectives on France and America the book offers a nuanced model for the interplay between social reality politics and the languages of class

The Making of the English Working Class Edward Palmer Thompson, 1963 Journal for the Study of British Cultures, 1996 The Lancet, 1887 The Rise and Decline of International Communism Geoffrey Stern, 1990

Challenging many of the most deeply held assumptions about the communist world this original provocative and wide ranging book brings new understanding of the international communist movement The Rise and Decline of International Communism analyses the changing fortunes of the communist movement from the time of the Comintern to the diffuse and diverse array of socialist and workers parties of today It argues that while the Bolshevik experiment has left an indelible imprint still serving as a model for some and a warning to others national preoccupations and conflicts of interpretation have produced serious rifts which have shattered the myth of global communist solidarity and raised question marks over the future of communism as an ideology movement and way of life Written by a distinguished academic and broadcaster lively and accessible this book is both a basic text and superb overview English Nationalism and its Ghost Towns Luke Telford,2022-05-18 In order to understand today s nationalism we need to address the historical decline of working class communities the sense of loss brought by deindustrialisation and how working class people have been denied a voice in society and politics Discontent has manifested strongly in these deprived post industrial areas often branded as communities that have been left behind under neoliberal globalisation Whilst more and more people are voicing their discontent with a system that fails to provide social security and economic stability many researchers have branded them merely as racists xenophobes and ill educated Although prejudices are likely to play a part in all political outcomes today s dissatisfaction across the West cannot be reduced to mere emotion and intolerance This book therefore utilises on the ground research with working class individuals in a Leave voting locale in Britain exploring their discontent with politicians the Labour Party the European Union immigration refugees and the prolonged calls for a second referendum It situates this sentiment towards society and politics within the decline of capitalism s post war era and the loss of well paid industrial jobs increase in non unionised service employment and the hollowing out of community spirit Companion to Women's Historical Writing M. Spongberg,A. Curthoys,B. Caine,2016-04-30 This A Z reference work provides the first comprehensive reference guide to the wide range of historical writing with which women have been involved particularly since the Renaissance The Companion covers biographical writing travelogue and historical fictions broadening the concept of history to include the forms of writing with which women have historically engaged The focus is on women writing in English internationally but historical and historiographical traditions from beyond the English speaking world are also examined Brief biographies of individual writers are included Diplomatic and Consular Reports. Annual Series Great Britain. Foreign Office,1894 Macmillan's Magazine ,1890 Cumulative Bibliography of Victorian Studies ,1970 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1992 Labour History ,1997 Social Peace Gerhart von Schultze-Gaevernitz,1893 British Medical Journal ,1884 The Economist ,1874 The Churchman ,1899
