Rise Fall Of South African Peasantry:

The Rise and Fall of the South African Peasantry Colin Bundy, 1979-01-01 The Rise and Fall of the South African Peasantry Colin Bundy, 1988 With a Preface reviewing some of the debates prompted by the earlier edition of this book The first edition of this book was hailed as a major reinterpretation of South African history It criticised the prevailing view that African agriculture was primitive or backward and attacked the notion that poverty and lack of development were a result of traditionalism Bundy's work introduced the idea that by the late nineteenth and early twentieth century capitalist development in South Africa was increasingly hostile to peasant producers and a massive onslaught was launched against them the understanding of this was vital to an understanding of both the South African past and present Der schwarze

Braun, 2014-10-16 In Colonial Survey and Native Landscapes in Rural South Africa 1850 1913 Lindsay Frederick Braun explores the technical processes and struggles surrounding the creation and maintenance of boundaries and spaces in South Africa in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The precision of surveyors and other colonial technicians lent these enterprises an illusion of irreproachable objectivity and authority even though the reality was far messier Using a wide range of archival and printed materials from survey departments repositories and libraries the author presents two distinct episodes of struggle over lands and livelihoods one from the Eastern Cape and one from the former northern Transvaal These cases expose the contingencies contests and negotiations that fundamentally shaped these changing South African landscapes

Land, Chiefs, Mining Andrew Manson, Bernard Mbenga, 2014-09-01 Land Chiefs Mining explores aspects of the experience of the Batswana in the thornveld and bushveld regions of the North West Province shedding light on defining issues moments and individuals in this lesser known region of South Africa Some of the focuses are an important Tswana kgosi chief Moiloa II of the Bahurutshe responses to and participation in the South African War and its aftermath 1899 1907 land acquisition economic and political conditions in the reserves resistance to Mangope's Bophuthatswana the impact of game parks and the Sun City resort rural resistance and the liberation struggle and African reaction to the platinum mining revolution Written in a direct and accessible style and illustrated with photographs and maps the book provides an understanding for a general reader ship of the region and its recent history At the same time it opens up avenues for further research The authors Andrew Manson and Bernard Mbenga both based at North West University Mahikeng Campus have for some thirty years been studying and writing on the region s past Plunder for Profit Elijah Doro,2023-04-13 Exploring over a century of Zimbabwe s colonial and post colonial history Elijah Doro investigates the murky and noxious history of that powerful crop tobacco In a compelling narrative that debunks previous histories glorifying tobacco farming Doro reveals the indelible marks that tobacco left on landscapes communities and people Demonstrating that the history of tobacco farming is inseparable from that of colonial encounter Doro outlines how tobacco became an institutionalised culture of production which was linked to state power and natural ecosystems and driven by a pernicious heritage of unbridled plunder With the destruction of landscapes the negative impacts of the export trade and the growing tobacco epidemic in Zimbabwe tobacco farming has a long and varied legacy in southern African and across the world Connecting the local to the global and the environmental to the social this book illuminates our understandings of environmental history colonialism and sustainability

Foundations of the New South Africa John Pampallis,1991 Domination, Resistance, and Social Change in South Africa Kathryn Manzo,1992-09-15 Manzo examines by means of historical analysis the effects of global power relationships on the politics of South Africa The author looks at the ways in which global power constructs identity normalizes relations of domination and shapes the form that resistance takes She asks for example why dominated people are so often waging conflicts among themselves rather than directing their resistance unfailingly toward their oppressors Why too is open defiance relatively rare and mass action infrequently used South Africa as an example is used to illustrate the much broader experience of oppressed populations as they struggle against western domination The book vividly portrays the complexity of relationships in South Africa and the role played by black resistance in economic and political change over time Manzo s sound interpretation unifies and enriches the historical progression and establishes a solid foundation for analyzing the lessons South Africa offers about the use of power in international relations      Peasants in Africa Martin A. Klein, 1980-04 Monograph on subsistence farming and social change among small farmers and tenant farmers in Africa includes historical account of the peasantry under colonialism and examines rural area social stratification agricultural production according to social system impact of land tenure and export oriented commercial farming rural women state intervention and peasant movements etc Maps and references      The State, Technology and Peasant Differentiation in Zambia Samuel Chipungu, 1987      Peasants and Rural Social Protest in Africa Allen F. S. Crush, Jonathan Crush, Charles H. Ambler, 1992 When the youth of Soweto in open insurrection in June 1976 smashed and burned eighteen state owned liquor outlets and a similar number of bottle stores they were not following the pattern of alcohol looting which often accompanies rioting They were attacking symbols of state oppression and their anger stemmed partly from deep and complicated struggles over control of the access of blacks to alcohol in South Africa From many published sources official and unofficial the social and economic importance of alcohol in black communities is glaringly evident The subject has however received little systematic scholarly attention to date Liquor and labor in southern Africa breaks new ground in locating the study of alcohol use within the framework of southern African historiography      The Changing Past Ken Smith, Kenneth Wyndham Smith, 1989 E H Carr said Before you study the history study the historian Written history often tells us more about the historian s own times than it does of the times about which he is writing The historians and the way in which each generation has rewritten history in the light of its own preoccupations is the subject of The Changing Past This is the first book length survey in English that covers all the main trends in South African historiography Starting with the first documents and histories it goes on to trace the 19th century British and settler schools Afrikaans historiography from its pre academic 19th century phase to the present and the liberal historians who struck out in a new direction from the 1920s The book highlights the break with the past that historians of the new radical school have made in the last 15 years and surveys the position of historical writing to the present The canvas is delineated in bold strokes that sketch in the main outlines rather than seek an exhaustive treatment of all existing literature This together with a conscious effort to minimize theoretical discussion makes it a highly readable text
