Southeast Asian Responses to Globalization Francis Loh Kok Wah, 2003-08-01 It is now apparent especially in the aftermath of the regional financial crisis of 1997 that globalization has been impacting upon the Southeast Asian economies and societies in new and harrowing ways a theme of many recent studies Inadvertently these studies of globalization have also highlighted that the 1980s and 1990s debate on democratization in the region which focused on the emergence of the middle classes the roles of new social movements NGOs and the changing relations between state and civil society might have been overly one dimensional This volume revisits the theme of democratization via the lenses of globalization understood economically politically and culturally Although globalization increasingly frames the processes of democracy and development nonetheless the governments and peoples of Southeast Asia have been able to determine the pace and character even the direction of these processes to a considerable extent This collection of essays by some distinguished senior scholars and other equally perceptive younger ones focuses on this globalization democratization nexus and shows empirically and analytically how governance is being restructured and democracy sometimes deepened in this new global era A historical review introduces the volume while an analytical assessment of the ten case studies concludes it Domination and Contestation Faisal S Hazis, 2003-08-01 e This book makes an important contribution to understanding the ongoing political evolution of politics in Sarawak It also provides a case study of the engagement of a dominant state with social forces in a multi ethnic society e Prof Harold Crouch Emeritus Professor Department of Political Taking off from Joel Migdal s notions of the strongman politician strong society weak state and the state in society the author discusses how the federal government accomodates Taib Mahmud s chief ministership over Sarawak and how his long tenure is anchored in winning political support from the Sarawak Muslim Bumiputera community An insightful book on contemporary Sarawak politics e Prof Francis Loh Kok Wah School of Social Sciences Universiti Sains Malaysia e This volume will go a long way in explaining why a single Melanau family has been able to dominate Sarawak politics for the past four decades e Prof James Chin Head of School of Arts and Social Sciences Monash University Malaysia Campus The Rise and Fall of Communism in Sarawak, 1940-1990 Vernon L. Porritt, 2004 As Sarawak evolved from a British colonial outpost to statehood in the Federation of Malaysia social and political stability was threatened by communist insurgency This book explains how communism was nurtured among the youth of Sarawak s ethnic Chinese community from the early 1940s how it grew into a powerful guerrilla movement that survived for decades and how the movement was finally overcome through an amnesty in 1990 Cutting Across the Lands Eveline Ferretti, 1997 Cover Contents Preface Indonesia Malaysia Philippines Asia Southeast Asia and Global Maps and Atlases Journals Subject Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N P R S T V W Contributors Politics in Sarawak, 1970-1976 Peter Searle, 1983 British Colonial Rule in Sarawak, 1946-1963 Vernon L. Porritt, 1997 Sarawak romanticized as the Land of the White Rajahs until 1946 lost its independence became a British colony and then became a state in the Federation of Malaysia all in the short span of seventeen years This book attempts to provide some answers to the questions often raised in connection with this period of unparalleled change in Sarawak s history a period which has largely been neglected by researchers Islamic Education in Indonesia and Malaysia Azmil Tayeb, 2018-03-13 Despite their close geographic and cultural ties Indonesia and Malaysia have dramatically different Islamic education with that in Indonesia being relatively decentralized and discursively diverse while that in Malaysia is centralized and discursively restricted The book explores the nature of the Islamic education systems in Indonesia and Malaysia and the different approaches taken by these states in managing these systems The book argues that the post colonial state in Malaysia has been more successful in centralising its control over Islamic education and more concerned with promoting a restrictive orthodoxy compared to the post colonial state in Indonesia This is due to three factors the ideological makeup of the state institutions that oversee Islamic education patterns of societal Islamisation that have prompted different responses from the states and control of resources by the central government that influences centre periphery relations Informed by the theoretical works of state in society relations and historical institutionalism this book shows that the three aforementioned factors can help a state to minimize influence from the society and exert its dominance in this case by centralising control
