Rites Of Autumn:

Spring and Autumn Historiography Newell Ann Van Auken,2023-03-14 The Spring and Autumn is an annals text composed of brief records covering the period 722 479 BCE and written from the perspective of the ancient Chinese state of Lu A long neglected part of the Chinese canon it is traditionally ascribed to Confucius who is said to have embedded his evaluations of events within the text However the formulaic and impersonal records do not resemble the repository of moral judgments that they are alleged to be Driven by her discovery that the Spring and Autumn is governed by a system of rules Newell Ann Van Auken argues that Lu record keepers not a later editor produced the formally regular core of the text She demonstrates that the Spring and Autumn employs formulaic phrasing and selective omission to encode the priorities of Lu and to communicate the relative importance of individuals states and events and that many of its records are derived from diplomatic announcements received in Lu from regional states and the Zhou court The Spring and Autumn is fundamentally a document designed to enhance the prestige of Lu and its records reveal a profound concern with relative rank displaying an idealized hierarchy that positions the state of Lu and its rulers at the apex By establishing the Spring and Autumn as a genuine Bronze Age record this book transforms our understanding of its significance and purpose and also offers new approaches to the study of ancient annals in early China and elsewhere

Coming Down from Above Lee Irwin,2014-10-20 For longer than five centuries Native Americans have struggled to adapt to colonialism missionization and government control policies This first comprehensive survey of prophetic movements in Native North America tells how religious leaders blended indigenous beliefs with Christianity's prophetic traditions to respond to those challenges Lee Irwin gathers a scattered literature to provide a single volume overview that depicts American Indians' creative synthesis of their own religious beliefs and practices with a variety of Christian theological ideas and moral teachings He traces continuities in the prophetic tradition from eighteenth century Delaware prophets to Western dream dance visionaries showing that Native American prophecy was not merely borrowed from Christianity but emerged from an interweaving of Christian and ancient North American teachings integral to Native religions From the highly assimilated ideas of the Puget Sound Shakers to such resistance movements as that of the Shawnee Prophet Irwin tells how the integration of non Native beliefs with prophetic teachings gave rise to diverse ethnotheologies with unique features He surveys the beliefs and practices of the nation to which each prophet belonged then describes his or her life and teachings the codification of those teachings and the impact they had on both the community and the history of Native religions Key hard to find primary texts are included in an appendix An introduction to an important strand within the rich tapestry of Native religions Coming Down from Above shows the remarkable responsiveness of those beliefs to historical events It is an unprecedented encyclopedic sourcebook for anyone interested in the roots of Native theology Journal of the Bombay Branch of the Royal Asiatic Society Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland Bombay Branch, 1883
