International Books in Print ,1986 Burials, Texts and Rituals Brigitta Hauser-Schäublin,I Wayan Ardika,2008 The villages on Bali s north east coast have a long history Archaeological findings have shown that the coastal settlements of Tejakula District enjoyed trading relations with India as long as 2000 years ago or more Royal decrees dating from the 10th to the 12th century inscribed on copper tablets and preserved in the local villages as part of their religious heritage bear witness to the fact that over a period of over 1000 years these played a major role as harbour and trading centres in the transmaritime trade between India and probably the Spice Islands At the same time the inscriptions attest to the complexity in those days of Balinese society with a hierarchical social organisation headed by a king who resided in the interior precisely where nobody knows The interior was connected to the prosperous coastal settlements through a network of trade and ritual The questions that faced the German Balinese research team were first Was there anything left over of this evidently glorious past And second Would our professional anthropological and archaeological research work be able to throw any more light on the vibrant past of these villages This book is an attempt to answer both these and further questions on Bali s coastal settlements their history and culture Custodians of the Sacred Mountains Thomas A. Reuter,2002-01-31 Custodians of the Sacred Mountains is the first comprehensive ethnography of the Bali Aga a large ethnic minority that occupies the island s central highlands The Bali Aga are popularly viewed as the indigenous counterparts to other Balinese who trace their origin to invaders from the Javanese kingdom of Majapait who have ruled Bali from the fourteenth century A D Although Bali remains one of the most intensely researched localities in the world the Bali Aga have long been overshadowed by the more exotic courtly culture of the south A closer analysis of the changing position of the Bali Aga within Balinese society provides a key to understanding the politics and social process of cultural representation in Bali and beyond The process is marked by a blend of representational competition and cooperation among the Bali Aga themselves among the Bali Aga and southern Balinese and later among the island s aristocratic elites and foreign colonizers or scholars and state authorities The study of this process raises important issues about the establishment and maintenance of status and power structures at regional national and global levels Custodians of the Sacred Mountains explores the marginalization of the Bali Aga in light of a critical theory of cultural representation and calls for a morally engaged approach to ethnographic research It proposes an intersubjective and communicative model of human interaction as the foundation for understanding the relative significance of cooperation and competition in the cultural production of knowledge Offerings Francine Brinkgreve,1992 Shows the elaborate sculptured constructions in palm fronds rice dough flowers and fruit that are created for Bali s frequent ritual offerings Time, Rites and Festivals in Bali Jean Couteau,Georges Breguet,2014-08-05 The Gregorian or Western calendar is the most widely used and recognized calendar system in the world but that doesn t mean it s the only one in use The concept of time in Bali and the inherent importance of rites and festivals on daily life combined to create a calendar system that is bewilderingly complex but intriguing in its history For the first time a book has been written which unravels the difficulty of the Balinese calendar system and makes it accessible to a general audience Time Rites and Festivals in Bali written by two recognized specialists of the culture is a two part exploration of a breathtaking calendar system and includes 62 specially commissioned drawings and a selection of photographs of rites along with wooden and painted calendars from museums around the world From a lively introduction to the distinctly Balinese concepts of time to an explanation of the two main calendars of Bali to an in depth discussion on the myth of Watugunung which is the basis for the origin of the main calendar system Time Rites and Festivals in Bali is a dynamic introduction to the spiritual and daily rituals that evolved at the core of this island nation Tatulingga Danker Schaareman,1986
