Porsche 911 Road Cars Dennis Adler, 1999 Max Hoffman Myles Kornblatt, 2022 This fascinating story charts the career of Max Hoffman, the US car dealer who represented Jaguar, Porsche, Mercedes, Volkswagen, Fiat, Lancia, BMW and many other European car brands during the decades following WWII. He pushed for distinguished now classics like the Mercedes 300 SL, Gullwing, Porsche Speedster, BMW 507 and Alfa Romeo Giulietta Spider. Hoffman built a reputation as an effective middleman, but as the car companies he represented became more successful under his watch, the less they needed their go-between. When it was inevitably time to say goodbye to Maxie, he showed his teeth with everything from lawsuits against his suppliers to threatening executives with a mob hit. However, Hoffman also had a very good reason to be defensive. He understood the American market and he pushed manufacturers specifically for cars that would strike a chord and make everybody involved richer. Sometimes the hero, sometimes the villain, but more often than not, Max Hoffman was the unseen puppet master behind some of today's best classics.

Macroeconomics in Context Sebastian Dullien, Neva Goodwin, Jonathan Harris, Julie Nelson, Brian Roach, Mariano Torras, 2017-08-23 Macroeconomics in Context: A European Perspective lays out the principles of macroeconomics in a manner that is thorough, up to date and relevant to students. With a clear presentation of economic theory throughout, this latest addition to the bestselling In Context set of textbooks is written with a specific focus on European data, institutions and historical events, offering engaging treatment of high interest topics including sustainability, Brexit, the euro crisis and rising inequality. Policy issues are presented in context, historical, institutional, social, political and ethical, and always with reference to human well-being. This book is divided into four parts covering the following key issues: The context of economic analysis.

including basic macroeconomic statistics and tools The basics of macroeconomic measurements including GDP inflation and unemployment as well as alternative measures of well being and the particular structures of the European economies Methods for analyzing monetary and fiscal policy including an in depth coverage of the instruments and approaches of the European central bank and some coverage of an open economy The application of the tools learnt to selected macroeconomic issues such as the euro crisis the global financial crisis public debt global development and environmental sustainability Far more than any other existing macroeconomic textbook this book combines real world relevance of the topics covered with a strong focus on European institutions and structures within an approach that explains multiple economic paradigms This combination helps to raise students interest in macroeconomics as well as enhance their understanding of the power and limitation of macroeconomic analysis Visit http://www.bu.edu/eci/education/materials/textbooks/macroeconomics_in_context_a_european_perspective/ for online resources for both lecturers and students A video of a panel discussion about the book can be found at <https://youtu.be/xjHJrW9WP44>

Brand Desire Nicholas Ind, Oriol Iglesias, 2016-10-20 Desire is big business If companies can create true desirability for their brands customers will not only express preference and loyalty they also show a willingness to act as brand champions participate in online communities co create innovative ideas and show the sort of commitment that is normally associated with fervent employees However desire doesn't just happen Brands need to nurture it by offering both security and surprise This isn't just about marketing but rather a reflection of an organization wide culture and perspective Using international case studies Brand Desire explains how companies can engage customers emotionally and create value for them Managers can successfully build and maintain brand desire through specific strategies and tools such as promoting a principles driven organization that is grounded in its heritage and distinctive competences creating a supportive culture that encourages the active participation of people in brand development providing an opportunity for people to communicate more with each other and to encourage socialization through communities and events and offering outstanding experiences being consistent in delivery from first communications through to after sales service and support In a crowded sales environment brand desire can elevate any product or service so that it stands out from the crowd and stays there Brand Desire demonstrates how desirable brands are about desirable experiences and shows what companies can do to maximize those experiences for their customers
