

The background of the cover is a composite image. On the right side, there is a sketch of a man with dark hair, wearing a suit and tie, sitting at a desk. The left side of the background is filled with handwritten text in a cursive script, which appears to be a letter or a diary entry. The text is partially obscured by the title. Portrait Of A Killer: Jack The Ripper -- Case Closed Patricia Cornwell, 2002-11-11 Now updated with new material that brings the killer's picture into clearer focus In the fall of 1888 all of London was held in the grip of unspeakable terror An elusive madman calling himself Jack the Ripper was brutally butchering women in the slums of London's East End Police seemed powerless to stop the killer who delighted in taunting them and whose crimes were clearly escalating in violence from victim to victim And then the Ripper's violent spree seemingly ended as abruptly as it had begun He had struck out of nowhere and then vanished from the scene Decades passed then fifty years then a hundred and the Ripper's bloody sexual crimes became anemic and impotent fodder for puzzles mystery weekends crime conventions and so called Ripper Walks that end with pints of ale in the pubs of Whitechapel But to number one New York Times bestselling novelist Patricia Cornwell the Ripper murders are not cute little mysteries to be transformed into parlor games or movies but rather a series of terrible crimes that no one should get away with even after death Now Cornwell applies her trademark skills for meticulous research and scientific expertise to dig deeper into the Ripper case than any detective before her and reveal the true identity of this fabled Victorian killer In Portrait of a Killer Jack the Ripper Case Closed Cornwell combines the rigorous discipline of twenty first century police investigation with forensic techniques undreamed of during the late Victorian era to solve one of the most infamous and difficult serial murder cases in history Drawing on unparalleled access to original Ripper evidence documents and records as well as archival academic and law enforcement resources FBI profilers and top forensic scientists Cornwell reveals that Jack the Ripper was none other than a respected painter of his day an artist now collected by some of the world's finest museums Walter Richard Sickert It has been said of Cornwell that no one depicts the human capability for evil better than she Adding layer after layer of circumstantial evidence to the physical evidence discovered by modern forensic science and expert minds Cornwell shows that Sickert who died peacefully in his bed in 1942 at the age of 81 was not only one of Great Britain's greatest painters but also a serial killer a damaged diabolical man driven by megalomania and hate She exposes Sickert as the author of the infamous Ripper letters that were written to the Metropolitan Police and the press Her detailed analysis of his paintings shows that his art continually depicted his horrific mutilation of his victims and her examination of this man's birth defects the consequent genital surgical interventions and their effects on his upbringing present a casebook example of how a psychopathic killer is created New information and startling revelations detailed in Portrait of a Killer include How a year long battery of more than 100 DNA tests on samples drawn by Cornwell's forensics team in September 2001 from original Ripper letters and Sickert documents yielded the first shadows of the 75 to 114 year old genetic evid

most likely offenders The Persons of Interest Priority Assessment Tool POIPAT provides an objective and consistent means of establishing a priority ranking of suspects or persons of interest in any investigation Created and used correctly the tool can determine if any suspect POI should be considered a high medium or low investigative priority saving time and resources and potentially saving additional victims Criminal Major Case Management Persons of Interest Priority Assessment Tool POIPAT describes how to set up a POIPAT system for any investigation where there are numerous POIs and limited resources Using the unsolved Jack the Ripper mystery as a sample case study it walks readers through the steps of creating and using the POIPAT system The book begins by providing an overview of offender profiling and the basic considerations for developing elements for a POIPAT It explains the Element Weighting Chart EWC and discusses how many points each element should be weighted based on its level of importance The author describes how to determine what point totals constitute a high medium or low priority so that police managers can know how best to direct their resources He also discusses tracking how POIs are eliminated through an elimination coding system thereby avoiding potential duplication and allowing investigators to hone in on the person most likely to have committed the crime Finally the book uses the POIPAT system to draw conclusions about some of the best known suspects who were most likely to have been the real Jack the Ripper Seeing how the technique is used in a real case investigators will discover how to effectively create unique POIPATs for their own cases The downloadable resources contain a template that can be modified for any type of investigation and a number of additional tools and guides

The Trial of Jack the Ripper Euan Macpherson, 2005 The police investigation uncovered some disturbing details The accused was a small dark haired man who was known to have been violent towards women He had been born and brought up in the Midlands but had moved to the East End of London in the late autumn of 1887 On 21 January 1889 he and his wife travelled by boat to Dundee This meant that he had arrived in London before the start of the Jack the Ripper murders and had left around the same time that they ceased Could this be coincidence people wondered Could it also be a coincidence that the murder in Dundee carried all the hallmarks of a ripper murder In the month before the trial the local newspapers in Dundee began to run sensational stories linking the accused with the notorious Whitechapel murders When the trial opened to a packed courtroom many in the public gallery were wondering if the man standing in the dock was none other than Jack the Ripper himself In this sensational and groundbreaking book Euan Macpherson presents the evidence that the long arm of the law really did catch up with Jack the Ripper in a dingy basement flat in Dundee in the cold winter months of early 1889 money Paul Delany s has read Gissing s 22 novels and his other works with a fine biographer s eye Gissing was a neurotic writer and everything in his later life was determined by the twin disasters of his imprisonment and his marriage to Nell Harrison Prison he concealed altogether It could be argued that Victorian society rested on hypocrisy requiring everyone to lie about their desires But the major figures in Gissing s novels are almost always bad liars In his own case a mistake in youth created daily misery that he could never shake off Yet Gissing the novelist gives us better than anyone the flavour of London in the 1880s and 1890s a compound of wet streets fog coal smoke narrow horizons and an imagination equal to it all In Paul Delany he has found the perfect biographer
