Extravagant Abjection Darieck Scott,2010-07-01 Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series 2011 Winner of the Alan Bray Memorial Book Award presented by the Modern Language Association Challenging the conception of empowerment associated with the Black Power Movement and its political and intellectual legacies in the present Darieck Scott contends that power can be found not only in martial resistance but surprisingly where the black body has been inflicted with harm or humiliation Theorizing the relation between blackness and abjection by foregrounding often neglected depictions of the sexual exploitation and humiliation of men in works by James Weldon Johnson Toni Morrison Amiri Baraka and Samuel R Delany Extravagant Abjection asks If we re racialized through domination and abjection what is the political personal and psychological potential in racialization through abjection Using the figure of male rape as a lens through which to examine this question Scott argues that blackness in relation to abjection endows its inheritors with a form of counter intuitive power indeed what can be thought of as a revised notion of black power This power is found at the point at which ego identity body race and nation seem to reveal themselves as utterly penetrated and compromised without defensible boundary Yet in Extravagant Abjection power assumes an unexpected and paradoxical form In arguing that blackness endows its inheritors with a surprising form of counter intuitive power as a resource for the political present found at the very point of violation Extravagant Abjection enriches our understanding of the construction of black male identity Eat your Heart Out Valérie Rauzier,2023-10-26 What makes the work of the American experimental writer Kathy Acker so utterly relevant today almost thirty years after her passing The articles collected in this volume aim to provide answers to this question Indeed through studies of both Acker s published and unpublished works analyses of her writing process View ,1989 Each issue consists of an interview with an individual artist Private Press Books ,1994 Portrait and Biographical Album of Fulton County, Illinois ,1890 Novae William H. Johnson,1990 Thelonious Monk Robin D. G. Kelley,2010-11-02 The first full biography of Thelonious Monk written by a brilliant historian with full access to the family s archives and with dozens of interviews The International Review of African American Art ,1998 Literatur in Wissenschaft und Unterricht Paul Gerhard Buchloh,1987 Geschichte der nordamerikanischen Kultur Gert Raeithel,1988
