Pop Trickster Fool Kelly M. Cresap, 2004 What Andy Warhol didn't know or pretended not to know changed history He habitually adopted the guise of a fool in public which made it all the harder to grasp what he was getting at with his pop paintings and deadpan films By making his own apparent lack of competence and intelligence into an elaborate ruse he became a figure without precedent a man whose self-conscious naivete has had truly revolutionary impact With poise wit and exacting intelligence Kelly M Cresap performs a nearly impossible task accounting for the far ranging implications of Warhol's sustained performance as a naïf This book is as much for those who despise Warhol as those who admire him Among the offerings here is a vigorous account of the search for Warhol's brain a polemic on camp taste and a unique town hall forum representing four decades of intense debate about the artist Readers will find an engaging blend of art and literature popular culture and mythology as well as timely reflections on postmodernism queer identity politics and the nature of jokes and performance

The Trip Deborah Davis, 2016-08-30 From the author of Strapless and Guest of Honor a book about a little known road trip Andy Warhol took from New York to LA in 1963 and how that journey and the numerous artists and celebrities he encountered profoundly affected his life and art

Andy Warhol's Mother Elaine Rusinko, 2024-11-19 While biographers of Andy Warhol have long recognized his mother as a significant influence on his life and art Julia Warhola's story has not yet been told As an American immigrant who was born in a small Carpatho Rusyn village in Austria-Hungary in 1891 Julia never had the opportunity to develop her own considerable artistic talents Instead she worked and sacrificed so her son could follow his dreams helping to shape Andy's art and persona Julia famously followed him to New York City and lived with him there for almost twenty years where she remained engaged in his personal and artistic life She was well known as Andy Warhol's mother even developing a distinctive signature with the title that she used on her own drawings Exploring previously unpublished material including Rusyn language correspondence and videos Andy Warhol's Mother provides the first in-depth look at Julia's hardscrabble life her creative imagination and her spirited personality Elaine Rusinko follows Julia's life from the folkways of the Old Country to the smog of industrial Pittsburgh and the tumult of avant-garde New York Rusinko explores the impact of Julia's Carpatho Rusyn culture Byzantine Catholic faith and traditional worldview on her ultra-modern son the quintessential American artist This close examination of the Warhola family's lifeworld allows a more acute perception of both Andy and Julia while also illuminating the broader social and cultural issues that confronted and conditioned them

Postcolonial Identities in Central Asian and Caucasian Literature Tamar Koplatadze, 2025-10-31 Decoloniality has emerged as one of the most prominent subjects of public and academic debates of our time bringing to the fore the post colonial perspectives of previously underrepresented groups Interest is similarly growing around the countries of the Caucasus and Central Asia which have been part of the Russian and Soviet empires and are now defining their independent post Soviet and decolonial identities Following the dissolution of the Soviet Union literature has become a key platform for exploring what it means to be post Soviet and the extent to which post Soviet identity is a post colonial one It is at this point that this monograph intervenes as the first major study to examine post Soviet literature from the Caucasus and Central Asia and to employ postcolonial theory as its methodology Authors from Georgia Armenia Azerbaijan Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan are placed in dialogue with each other to establish how they respond to the post Soviet transition and negotiate their postcolonial identities in their fiction These include Narine Abgaryan Hamid Ismailov Nana Ekvimishvili Mariam Petrosyan Bibish Lilya Kalaus the SHTAB collective and others Building and expanding on the theoretical tools of postcolonial and decolonial studies the enquiry covers four core topics trauma immigration NGOs and utopias The author argues that post colonial theory is crucial for understanding the current cultural developments in the Caucasus and Central Asia whose literatures are in many respects postcolonial on the level of the writers identity configurations and modes of representation GLQ, 2005 Soulfully Gay Joe Perez, 2007-05-08 Soulfully Gay is a personal memoir of an intellectually rigorous gay man wrestling with fundamental issues of meaning and self acceptance Joe Perez finds himself on a quest to understand what it means to be gay at the intersection of conflicts between homosexuality and Christianity faith and skepticism mysticism and madness His journey unfolds amid challenges to his health as a recovering addict a survivor of a psychotic episode and a man living with AIDS Joe is able to integrate seemingly contradictory elements his Roman Catholic upbringing versus his openly gay lifestyle his authentic mystical experiences versus the delusions for which he was hospitalized With a solid understanding of theology and an ability to see through the veils of political correctness Joe brings a new level of intellect and understanding to the challenges of being a gay man Amerasia Journal, 2014 Robert Mapplethorpe Robert Mapplethorpe, Gordon Baldwin, Daniel Cornell, 2009 American Studies Association American Studies Association.
