Pope John Xxiii Shepherd Of The Modern World:

Pope John XXIII, Shepherd of the Modern World Peter Hebblethwaite, 1985 Relates the boyhood and adult achievements of the Pope who called the Second Vatican Council and transformed the Church and the image of the papacy John XXIII Peter Hebblethwaite, 2010-06-15 Angelo Roncalli was elected Pope in 1958 and in four and a half years through summoning the Second Vatican Council and putting in hand a major revision of the code of Canon Law had transformed the Roman Catholic Church Through his personality and teaching and his initiatives with world leaders he gave the papacy a new vision and set before the Catholic Church a new version of its mission to the world Today many people throughout the world see Pope John XXIII as one of the twentieth century s most loved and influential figures John XXIII , 2000-09-13 A new edition to mark the beatification of Pope John XXIII Angelo Roncalli was elected pope in 1958 and in four and a half years transformed the Roman Catholic Church He summoned the Second Vatican Council and put in hand a major revision of the Code of Canon Law By his personality teaching and initiatives with world leaders he gave the papacy a new image and set before the Catholic Church a new version of its mission to the world John XXIII Peter Hebblethwaite, 1994-01-01

Politics and the Papacy in the Modern World Frank J. Coppa, 2008-06-30 The outbreak of the French Revolution and the Industrial Revolution at the turn of the nineteenth century transformed the world and ushered in the modern age whose currents challenged the traditional political order and the prevailing religious establishment The new secular framework presented a potential threat to the papal leadership of the Catholic community which was profoundly affected by the rush towards modernization In the nineteenth century the transnational church confronted a world order dominated by the national state until the emergence of globalization towards the close of the twentieth century Here Coppa focuses on Rome s response to the modern world exploring the papacy s political and diplomatic role during the past two centuries He examines the Vatican s impact upon major ideological developments over the years including capitalism nationalism socialism communism modernism racism and anti-Semitism At the same time he traces the continuity and change in the papacy s attitude towards church state relations and the relationship between religion and science Unlike many earlier studies of the papacy which examine this unique institution as a self contained unit and concentrate upon its role within the church this study examines this key religious institution within the broader framework of national and international political diplomatic social and economic events Among other things it explores such questions as the limits to be placed on national sovereignty the Vatican s critique of capitalism and communism the morality of warfare and the need for an equitable international order

Geschichte des globalen Christentums Jens Holger Schjørring, Norman A. Hjelm, Kevin Ward, 2018-04-25 The way in which the world s religions are intertwined in the dynamics of global development has become obvious in the twenty first century This also applies to Christianity In view of the fact that its historiography is still predominantly regional or national however little is known about Christianity s historical process of development to become a religion that is globally active and plurally differentiated The third volume presents for the first time in the German speaking countries a comprehensive interdenominational and interdisciplinary history of global Christianity in the twentieth century Renowned church historians and religious studies specialists trace developments during the century of world wars into the postmodern age In addition to geographically arranged essays supra regional thematic issues such as ecumenism and Christian anti-Semitism are presented in an authoritative and comprehensible fashion Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, 2018-01-02 Including contributions from twenty two leading moral theologians this volume is the most thorough assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching available In addition to interrogations of the major documents it provides insight into the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era which is generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII's Rerum Novarum The book also includes a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and offers an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address This second edition includes revised and updated essays as well as two new commentaries one on Pope Benedict XVI's encyclical Caritas in Veritate and one on Pope Francis's encyclical Laudato Si' An outstanding reference work for anyone interested in studying and understanding the key documents that make up the central corpus of modern Catholic social teaching John XXIII Lucinda Vardey, 2014 The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography eminent British Catholic theologian Adrian Hastings a distinguished team of international scholars provides a complete history of the Council and assesses its impact on the last quarter century of Catholic thought and practice The contributors consider the reign of John XXIII and his immediate predecessors and successors the history of the Council and each of the sixteen documents it issued which together represent perhaps the most authoritative church teaching of this century embodying radical changes in the liturgy and greater participation in services by lay members But Vatican II also left behind many unresolved controversies such as celibacy of priests and birth control and the contributors also examine these and other issues including the role of women in the Church homosexuality divorce and war and the nuclear predicament In addition the impact of the Council on different parts of the world is discussed giving full weight to the emergence of liberation theology in Latin America and the Philippines and the desire of African and Asian Catholics to assimilate aspects of their traditional culture into Church life Modern Catholicism offers us a new map for understanding the challenges faced by the Church as we approach the end of the second millennium of Christianity Commemorating the twenty fifth anniversary of Vatican II this book is destined to become the standard resource on the Council and its influence The Great Popes Through History Frank J. Coppa, 2002 Unlike other references that cover all the popes or the papacy in general with only examples from various popes the two volume encyclopedia presents longer and more detailed articles about those deemed to have most influenced the development of the church and the course of history The arrangement is by period early from Peter through Pelagius 590 medieval from Gregory I through Boniface VIII 1303 Renaissance and Reformation from Benedict XI through Pius IV 1565 early modern from Pius V through Clement XIV 1774 and modern from Pius VI through John Paul II The two volumes are paged and indexed together Bibliographies are entry specific Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR In the Vatican Peter Hebblethwaite, 1987 The Reception of Vatican II Giuseppe Alberigo, Jean-Pierre Jossua, Joseph A.
