Personal Relationships Their Structures And Processes:

Personal Relationships Harold H. Kelley, 2013-08-21 First published in 1982 This book summarizes certain concepts and evidence regarding the nature of close personal relationships Its purpose is to suggest how such relationships are to be conceptualized for scientific analysis What are the essential properties of a personal relationship What are its necessary defining structures and processes The material presented herein represents what Kelley has thought and learned about the social psychology of close relationships Personality and Close Relationship Processes Stanley O. Gaines, Jr, 2016-08-18 Few observers of relationship dynamics would dispute the claim of interdependence theorists that a defining feature of close relationships is the extent to which partners influence each other's thoughts feelings or behaviors However partners do not behave simply in response to each other's behavior both partners in a given relationship bring themselves indeed their selves into the relationship as well Not only are individuals selves enormously complex and rich in content but so too are the multitude of personality characteristics including traits values attitudes motives and emotions that contribute to selves richness Gaines Jr provides a major integration of research on personality with research on relationship science and demonstrates how personality constructs can be readily incorporated into the two most influential theories of close relationships attachment theory and interdependence theory This study will be of value to scholars in the fields of close relationships personality psychology communication studies and family studies The Divorce Process Craig Everett, 2021-03-24 Professionals who work with divorcing couples and their families will be inspired by this important book on effective clinical assessment and intervention The book blends a variety of expert contributions descriptive theoretical and empirical into a practical handbook that focuses on resources for dealing with the anger and pain of parting spouses and disrupted childhoods A rich array of clinically useful materials is provided The book covers background theory marital interaction the definition of clinical dysfunctions in children of divorce specific clinical features of childhood developmental levels post divorce reorganization and models of group work Public Relations As Relationship Management John A. Ledingham, Stephen D. Bruning, 2000 The emergence of relationship management as a paradigm for public relations scholarship and practice requires a close examination of just what is achieved by public relations its definition function and value and the benefits it generates Initiated by the editors interest in cross disciplinary exploration this volume evolved to its current form as a result of the need for a framework for understanding public relations and the potential impact of organization public relationships on the study practice and teaching of public relations Ledingham and Bruning include contributions that present state of the art research in relationship management applications of the relational perspective to various components of public relations and the implications of the approach to influence further research and practice The discussion conducted here is certain to influence and promote future theory and practice on the concept of relationship management Personal Relationships , 1981 Growing Together Frieder R. Lang, Karen L. Fingerman, 2004 This edited volume integrates research on people's relationships from childhood to later adulthood The Handbook of Large Group Methods Barbara Benedict Bunker, Billie T. Alban, 2012-06-26 Large Group Interventions are methods used to gather a whole system together to discuss and take action on the target agenda That agenda varies from future plans products and services to redesigning work to discussion of troubling issues and problems The Handbook of Large Group Methods takes the next step in demonstrating through a series of cases how Large Group Methods are currently being used to address twenty first century challenges in organizations and communities today including Working with widely dispersed organizations and the problem of involvement and participation Working with organizations facing a serious business crisis Working with organizations in polarized and politicized environments Working in community settings with diverse interest groups Working at the global level and adapting these methods for cross cultural use Embedding and sustaining new patterns of working together in organizations and communities Youth Homelessness in Late Modernity David Farrugia, 2015-07-30 This book explores the identities embodied experiences and personal relationships of young people experiencing homelessness and analyses these in relation to the material and symbolic position that youth homelessness occupies in modern societies Drawing on empirical research conducted in both urban and rural areas the book situates young people's experiences of homelessness within a theoretical framework that connects embodied identities and relationships with processes of social change The book theorises a symbolic economy of youth homelessness that encompasses the subjective aesthetic and relational dimensions of homelessness This theory shows the personal interpersonal and affective suffering that is caused by the relations of power and privilege that produce contemporary youth homelessness The book is unique in the way in which it places youth homelessness within the wider contexts of inequality and social change Whilst contemporary discussions of youth homelessness understand the topic as a discrete social problem this book demonstrates the position that youth homelessness occupies within wider social processes inequalities and theoretical debates addressing theories of social change in late modernity and their relationship to the cultural construction of youth These theoretical debates are made concrete by means of an exploration of an important form of contemporary inequality youth homelessness Theories of Organizational Structure and Process John B. Miner, 1982 The G. Stanley Hall: Hall lecturers American Psychological Association (Washington), 1981 Psychology is Social Edward Krupat, 1994 This anthology exposes students to readings or explorations from a range of authors who embrace a variety of perspectives in the field of social psychology Interviews with famous researchers give students a glimpse into the minds of those who have shaped each area of study review The selections have been chosen from a variety of sources and those containing technical terms and complex statistics have been carefully edited so that students can easily understand all of the material Inside Hitler's High Command Geoffrey P. Megargee, 2000 Challenging previous accounts Megargee shatters the myth that German generals would have prevailed in World War II if only Hitler had not meddled in their affairs Instead he observes that the military's strategic ideas were no better than Hitler's and often were worse 20 photos Small Group Research A. Paul Hare, 1994 Continues Handbook of small group research by A. Paul Hare Advances in Cognitive-behavioral Research and Therapy Philip C. Kendall, 1984 Bridges Not Walls John Stewart, 1995 Bridges not Walls examines interpersonal communication through a broad range of scholarly and popular articles drawn from various disciplines including communication philosophy social science and psychology Within these readings are thought provoking discussions of the nature of interpersonal contact connections between verbal and nonverbal cues person perception and social intelligence listening identity management interpersonal ethics types of love transformational conflict management and diversity The ninth edition features 23 new readings and material on power and the dark side of communication including deception betrayal and harassment BOOK JACKET Threatened Identities Glynis Marie Breakwell, 1983 Survey of Social Science: Culture and technology Frank Northen Magill, 1994 Essentials of Human Communication Joseph A. DeVito, 1995 An introductory level text covering in the first section the communication process the self perception listening and verbal and non verbal messages The second part addresses interpersonal communication including interviewing small group communication and public speaking Annotation copyri Proposal Writing William S. Pfeiffer, Charles Harold Keller, 2000 This book provides readers with an overview of proposal writing today along with the issues that influence the resources and methods used to develop them A focus on the real world of business presents further insight and guidance in acquiring the basic skills and some advanced in creating any type of proposal Chapter topics include marketing strategy writing graphics sales letters and the executive summary formal and informal documents reviews and editing For the skilled professionals already in this field affecting the bottom line profit of their companies seeking additional training or a valuable reference for producing persuasive and winning proposals The Effect of Friendship in Decisions Jennifer Halpern, 1992
