Personality And Christian Faith

Personality And Christian Faith:

Personality and Christian Faith Lowell G. Colston, Paul Emanuel Johnson, 1972 Alienation the deadening of man's sensitivity to man is a deep fundamental problem of modern life According to Drs Colston and Johnson the solution lies deeper than in the institutional structure it lies within the individual They believe the Christian gospel speaks to the alienated condition of man and that it affirms the value of personal creativity and responsibility as prerequisites to healing his estrangement Here they present a unified description of personality development and relate it to achieving mature personhood from a Christian perspective they discuss the causes of alienation fragmentation and some of the theories and methods intended for overcoming it They trace psychic and social interactions that affect persons in their struggle for creative growth focusing upon the crises and demands in each stage of life And they examine ways in which people can relate creatively to one another to bring vitality to personal and social transformations Publisher Religion and Personality

Adrian L. Van Kaam, 1964 An extensive and meaningful consideration of the growth of the religious personality The Psychology of Christian Personality Ernest Mayfield Ligon, 1935 Interpretation of the teachings of the Sermon on the Mount in terms of psychology Psychology for Christian Ministry Fraser N. Watts, Rebecca Nye, Sara B. Savage, 2002 This work is a comprehensive introduction to psychology as it is relevant to those training for and working in the clergy Proceeding from the understanding that psychology is the discipline that illuminates those processes of personal change and growth central to religion the volume ranges over many aspects of the subject covering social developmental educational occupational and counselling psychology as well as the psychology of religion This professional handbook is tailored to meet the specific needs of the Christian ministry as they encounter psychology in their training and their everyday work

Psychology for Christian Ministry Rebecca Nye, Sara Savage, Fraser Watts, 2003-09-02 This introduction to psychology has been devised for those training for and working in the clergy Ideal both as a professional handbook and a textbook it covers social developmental educational occupational and counselling psychology as well as the psychology of religion It carefully considers the processes of personal change and growth central to religion Religion and Mental Health, 1980 References to 1836 journal articles dissertations and books published since 1970 Also contains foreign language titles Focuses on literature dealing with the theoretical and practical relationships between religion and mental health Classified arrangement Each entry gives bibliographical information and abstract Author subject indexes Christian Character Formation Gifford A. Grobrien, 2019-05-16 Christian Character Formation investigates worship and formation in view of Christian anthropology particularly union with Christ Traditions which value justification by faith wrestle to some degree with how to describe and encourage ethical formation when salvation and righteousness are presented as gracious and complete The dialectic of law and gospel has suggested to some that forgiveness and the advocacy of ethical norms contend with each other By viewing justification and formation in light of Christ's righteousness which is both imputed and imparted

it is more readily seen that forgiveness and ethics complement each other In justification God converts a person by which he grants new character Traditional Lutheran anthropology says that this regeneration grants a new nature in mystical union with Jesus Christ By exploring the Finnish Luther School led by Tuomo Mannermaa Gifford A Grobien explains how union with Christ imparts righteousness and the corresponding new character to the believer Furthermore as means of grace the Word and sacraments are the means of establishing union with Christ and nurturing new character Considering Oswald Bayer s suffering the word of Christ Louis Marie Chauvet s symbolic order and Bernd Wannenwetsch s understanding of worship as Christianity s unique form of life Grobien argues that worship practices are the foundational and determinative context in which grace is offered and in which the distinctively Christian ethos supports virtues consistent with Christian character This understanding is also coordinated with Stanley Hauerwas s narrative ethics and Luther s teaching of virtue and good works in view of the Ten Commandments

Virtues and Their Vices Kevin Timpe, Craig A. Boyd, 2014 A comprehensive philosophical treatment of the virtues and their competing vices The first four sections focus on historical classes of virtue the cardinal virtues the capital vices and the corrective virtues intellectual virtues and the theological virtues A final section discusses the role of virtue theory in a number of disciplines

Resonances: Neurobiology, Evolution and Theology Markus Mühling, 2014-09-17 Markus M hling presents an epistemological theory of revelation as perception and a relational narrative theological ontology based on the concept of dramatic coherence in which the triune life is understood not as an anomaly within ontology but rather as the decisive condition of its possibility M hling further demonstrates that potential for resolving certain theological problems arises if new insights from the natural sciences such as the theory of the ecological brain in the neurosciences and the theory of niche construction in evolutionary theory are taken into account Similarly he also proposes that neuroscience and evolutionary biology can procure advantages from a dialogue with theology

The Character of Christ: Does it Supply an Adequate Basis for a Religion Thomas Welbanke FOWLE, 1872

The Religious Dimensions of Personality Wayne Edward Oates, 1957

Basic Training for Spiritual Warfare Steven Wiederwax, 2018-10-15 The Personality of God is the first book in a planned series called the Basic Training for Spiritual Warfare The Personality of God is based on Paul s writing to the Corinthians 1 Cor 14 12 and 2 Cor 3 18 and his comparison of looking into a mirror we see unclearly the face of God and how it becomes clearer and more distinct as we are changed into the image of God This reflection we see is of the spiritual image of God and not his physical image This truth begs for the answer to what is God s spiritual nature or what are the personality traits of God that comprise this nature The Personality of God strives to answer this question by addressing the nature of God as it is revealed in the Bible Using both historical and modern Bible commentaries on scripture that documents God s personality the traces the evolution of thought concerning God's individual personality traits is explored. Additionally where appropriate the book cites Biblical dictionaries and lexicons to explore the original Hebrew and Greek meanings of the various words to describe God's personality and the challenges facing the translators of the various Bible versions faced in accurately portraying what was written by the authors of the different books of the Bible. Isaiah wrote that God teaches us and that we learn precept upon precept line upon line a little here and a little there. Is 28:10. Thus the Personality of God is intended to help teach us new precepts that our knowledge of God may increase. The Personality of God is intended to help Christians to a greater knowledge and understanding of what it means to be more like God. For Pastors and Sunday School teacher in can be used as a reference to help strengthen and encourage their congregation and students of becoming a strong witness for Christ.

The Psychology of Christian Character Formation Joanna Collicutt, 2015-04-30. The Psychology of Christian Character Formation offers clergy and those preparing for ministry some of the potential riches provided by rapidly developing branches of contemporary scientific psychology of which they might otherwise be unaware. Joanna Collicutt, an experienced psychologist and theological educator, focuses on the psychology of character, virtue, and spirituality. Furthermore, the psychology is not used to support training in pastoral ministry to others but rather to support the reader's own self-awareness and spiritual growth. Joanna Collicutt understands Christian formation as Christian communities and their members growing up into conformity with the character of Christ through the action of the Holy Spirit. This is explored in the three parts of the book: first, an exploration of the process of Christian formation that includes a detailed analysis of the character of Jesus of Nazareth; secondly, some focused psychology aimed at supporting an informed self-awareness in the reader; finally, and the most lengthy section, a series of chapters devoted to using psychological insights to help cultivate the Christ-like characteristics identified in the first section.
