The security of Sam Bells gated community is jeopardized when a neighbor dies under bizarre circumstances Then there is a grotesque discovery in the root cellar of an abandoned abbey located within the community What changed the quiet streets of the Glenn Abbey Homeowners Association to a place of fear Could it have something to do with the escalating battle over rule enforcement and civil liberties that began as a small disagreement between Sam and the association and became a tangle of deception Or could a chilling secret from association board member Patty Lippets past explain the change and her hatred of Sam and friends on Carousel Circle What did anyone know about her really and why was she trying to silence them As the truth emerges association rules collide with residents in a freedom versus security dispute Sam his wife Alba and their friends on Carousel Circle decide to fight the association over this issue Once this decision is made their lives zigzag from uproarious protest demonstrations to media involvement hair raising escapes murder and a make or break trial Even though Alba knows the odds of defeating the powerful association are against them Sams feisty attorney wife agrees to represent Sam and friends in the pending trial Meanwhile Patty Lippet lurks in the boardroom and streets of Glenn Abbey and decisions are made which lead to danger for Sam and his neighbors and ultimately places their lives in the balance

Ozark Baptizings, Hangings, and Other Diversions Robert K. Gilmore, 1990-01-01

Ozark Baptizings Hangings and Other Diversions is about the people of a unique corner of America and how they entertained themselves at the turn of the century In the years from 1885 to 1910 most Ozark communities were still relatively isolated from the outside and from each other Thus they had to rely on their own resources for diversion from the difficult and often solitary business of everyday living The most popular of their entertainments were those that brought some theater into their lives They especially delighted in literaries debates mock trials closing of school programs suppers picnics brush arbor revivals and baptizings Then there was the occasional hanging that for audience attention was rivaled only by the political rally The hanging took on all the flavor of high drama even to the impassioned farewell address by the condemned who was carried away by the excitement of it all By their entertainments shall we know them and this account of Ozarkers diversions reveals them in all their independence conservatism sense of place humor dedication to learning love of the spoken language and religious and political intensity No come here an Ozarker s term for a newcomer Robert K Gilmore grew up on an Ozark farm reared by grandparents who were young in the era described in this book Years later he went back to the rural Ozarks and encouraged the people to recall the early days for him They described the entertainments of their youth with a special clarity of recall The files of the Ozark weeklies also proved richly rewarding The editors and their rural correspondents delighted in describing the local entertainments in vivid
