Pesn O Gaiavate:

Russian Studies of American Literature Valentina A. Libman, 1969      About Chekhov Ivan Alekseevich

Bunin, 2007-06-05 Seven years after the death of Anton Chekhov his sister Maria wrote to a friend You asked for someone who could write a biography of my deceased brother If you recall I recommended Iv Al Bunin No one writes better than he he knew and understood my deceased brother very well he can go about the endeavor objectively I repeat I would very much like this biography to correspond to reality and that it be written by I A Bunin In About Chekhov Ivan Bunin sought to free the writer from limiting political social and aesthetic assessments of his life and work and to present both in a more genuine insightful and personal way Editor and translator Thomas Gaiton Marullo subtitles About Chekhov The Unfinished Symphony because although Bunin did not complete the work before his death in 1953 he nonetheless fashioned his memoir as a moving orchestral work on the writers existence and art Even in its unfinished state About Chekhov stands not only as a stirring testament of one writer s respect and affection for another but also as a living memorial to two highly creative artists Bunin draws on his intimate knowledge of Chekhov to depict the writer at work in love and in relation with such writers as Tolstoy and Gorky Through anecdotes and observations spirited exchanges and reflections this memoir draws a unique portrait that plumbs the depths and complexities of two of Russia s greatest writers      Twentieth-Century Russian Poetry Katharine Hodgson, Joanne Shelton, Alexandra Smith, 2017-04-21 The canon of Russian poetry has been reshaped since the fall of the Soviet Union A multi authored study of changing cultural memory and identity this revisionary work charts Russia s shifting relationship to its own literature in the face of social upheaval Literary canon and national identity are inextricably tied together the composition of a canon being the attempt to single out those literary works that best express a nation s culture This process is of course fluid and subject to significant shifts particularly at times of epochal change This volume explores changes in the canon of twentieth century Russian poetry from the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union to the end of Putin s second term as Russian President in 2008 In the wake of major institutional changes such as the abolition of state censorship and the introduction of a market economy the way was open for wholesale reinterpretation of twentieth century poets such as Iosif Brodskii Anna Akhmatova and Osip Mandelstam their works and their lives In the last twenty years many critics have discussed the possibility of various coexisting canons rooted in official and non official literature and suggested replacing the term Soviet literature with a new definition Russian literature of the Soviet period Contributions to this volume explore the multiple factors involved in reshaping the canon understood as a body of literary texts given exemplary or representative status as classics Among factors which may influence the composition of the canon are educational institutions competing views of scholars and critics including figures outside Russia and the self canonising activity of poets themselves Canon revision further reflects contemporary concerns with the destabilising effects of emigration and the internet and the desire to reconnect with pre revolutionary cultural traditions through a narrative of the past which foregrounds continuity Despite persistent nostalgic yearnings in some quarters for a single canon the current situation is defiantly diverse balancing both the Soviet literary tradition and the parallel contemporaneous literary worlds of the emigration and the underground Required reading for students teachers and lovers of Russian literature Twentieth Century Russian Poetry brings our understanding of post Soviet Russia up to date Sacred Stories Mark D.
