Starmmer: EU reset 'good for borders'

PM insists deal benefits UK as critics warn it will 'open floodgates' to European migrants

By Helen Jones
The Prime Minister has insisted that the deal struck with the European Union is a "good deal" for the UK, despite warnings from critics that it will "open floodgates" to European migrants.
Mr. Starmmer said the deal was a "good deal" for the UK, despite warnings from critics that it will "open floodgates" to European migrants.
The deal, which was announced last week, allows the UK to remain in the EU's single market and customs union, but in return, the UK must accept all EU migrants, regardless of whether they are British citizens or not.
