Islam, 2024-11-08 Infectious diseases have jeopardized human health significantly as evidenced by the ongoing Covid 19 pandemic In recent years the world has witnessed outbreaks of many emerging and re emerging infections such as SARS most recent by SARS CoV 2 Ebola Zika MERS dengue which in addition to taking millions of lives have posed major health issues in recovered individuals Moreover several infectious agents like hepatitis B and C viruses human papillomavirus human immunodeficiency virus type 1 Epstein Barr virus human T cell leukemia lymphoma virus type 1 Kaposi sarcoma associated herpesvirus Helicobacter pylori and Streptococcus bovis have been found to cause different types of cancers since the action mechanism of these agents sometimes transforms an infected cell into a cancer cell As these infections are difficult to treat with available drugs owing to their lower efficacy toxicity and emergence of drug resistance immunotherapy is viewed as a viable option Immunotherapy is manipulating body's defense mechanism to treat/manage disease Threats of emerging and reemerging infectious diseases in addition to dangers of developing cancer due to cancer-causing infectious agents combined with lack of effective treatment modalities has shifted focus of scientific community to immunotherapy Advancements in immunotherapies comprising vaccines monoclonal antibodies cytokines T cells and checkpoint inhibitors have shown immense promise in combating not only cancer but infectious diseases as well Through this Research Topic we aim to discuss recent advances in immunotherapy-based treatment/management of infectious diseases We aim to include studies that evaluate how different forms of immunotherapies including vaccines have been/can be exploited for preventing/treating/managing infectious diseases We welcome Original Research Articles Reviews and Mini reviews discussing the following main themes Vaccines against emerging/re-emerging diseases Vaccine design components/technologies such as adjuvants/delivery systems/administration route/dosage Targeted therapy Cancer immunotherapy using but not limited to monoclonal antibodies cytokines T cells and checkpoint inhibitors Monoclonal antibodies including nanobodies against SARS-CoV-2 for the treatment and prevention of COVID-19 Immunotherapies for infectious diseases using but not limited to monoclonal antibodies cytokines T cells and checkpoint inhibitors Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts elaborating the use of delivery systems/nanoparticles/nanomaterials for the aforementioned theme/themes

Activist Retail Investors and the Future of Financial Markets Usman W. Chohan, Sven Van Kerckhoven, 2023-04-17 Contemporary financial markets have been characterized by sociocultural phenomena such as meme stocks the Gamestop short squeeze and You Only Live Once YOLO trading These are movements led by small-scale retail investors banding together to participate forcefully in financial markets through decentralized but coordinated actions This book deploys many different subdisciplines to explore the recent power grabbing of retail investors and the online environment that enables them to join the ranks of major financial players and participate in contemporary capitalism It offers multiple perspectives on the genesis/role/motivations/power and future prospects of retail investors as a force in contemporary financial markets Drawing upon the insights of authors hailing from many different countries the book frames YOLO capitalism through numerous angles that help to explain the context and the importance of activist retail investors in modern financial markets and thereby explore the possibilities of a transformed financial future with much wider small-scale participation The book assesses the potential of online and other communities in enabling global coordination in impacting or even driving financial and crypto markets and the challenges that come with it and weighs the competing narratives both positive and negative regarding YOLO capitalism It strikes a balanced assessment of their legal/cultural/behavioural/economic and political roles in modern finance This book will be of interest to a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary audience of scholars in financial markets/financial regulation/political economy/public administration/macroeconomics/corporate governance and the philosophy and the sociology of finance

COVID-19 in Brooklyn Jerome Krase, Judith DeSena, 2023-03-07 COVID-19 in Brooklyn Everyday

Life During a Pandemic looks closely at the ways that the COVID 19 pandemic impacted the lives of ordinary people living in the super gentrified Brooklyn neighborhoods of Park Slope and Greenpoint Williamsburg where the authors hunkered down during the 2020 lockdown Putting their private lives into broader scientific and public contexts Krase and DeSena discuss a wide range of research methods and theories as well as print and internet media sources about the pandemic With words and images the scholar activist authors place their own personal experiences and those of their family and neighbors inside the broader context of global and national medical emergencies as well as related economic social and political unrest such as widespread unemployment the Black Lives Matter Movement and the contentious 2020 presidential election Using a distributive social justice perspective and examining their own privileges they discover and discuss the racial and economic inequities that affected the lives of other Brooklynites These disparities included public health measures and lack of access to basic necessities of urban living The book also addresses the cultural and economic shifts that took place at the start of the pandemic and contemplate how those forces will impact on future urban life asking what the new normal of business entertainment education housing and work will look like locally and globally This richly illustrated book offers an invaluable local study of the impact of the pandemic on ordinary people in Brooklyn As such it will be of great interest to students and researchers in the humanities and social sciences
