Personal Reminiscences Of General Robert E Lee:

Personal Reminiscences, Anecdotes, and Letters of Gen. Robert E. Lee John William Jones, 1875 At the death of General Lee a memorial volume was announced and this Committee was appointed to superintend the publication Circumstances for which neither the Committee nor the publishers were responsible delayed and finally prevented the publication of that work In the mean time Rev John William Jones had prepared this book to aid in the completion of Valentine s beautiful sepulchral monument to General Lee Mr Jones was a faithful chaplain in the army of General Lee and subsequently while minister of the Baptist Church in Lexington enjoyed in an unusual degree his favor and regard During this period and while acting at times as chaplain of Washington College Mr Jones had special opportunities to observe the character of General Lee for whom he entertained an enthusiastic devotion The Committee knowing the peculiar qualifications which the author brings to this work have afforded him the fullest access to the materials in their possession and are happy now to commend to the public the completed volume as a valuable contribution toward a biography of Robert E Lee Committee of the Faculty of Washington and Lee University
