Holstein, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2013-10-21 Constructionism has become one of the most popular research approaches in the social sciences But until now little attention has been given to the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of the constructionist stance and the remarkable diversity within the field This cutting edge handbook brings together a dazzling array of scholars to review the foundations of constructionist research how it is put into practice in multiple disciplines and where it may be headed in the future The volume critically examines the analytic frameworks strategies of inquiry and methodological choices that together form the mosaic of contemporary constructionism making it an authoritative reference for anyone interested in conducting research in a constructionist vein Handbook of Social Psychology Jan E. Stets, Karen A. Hegtvedt, Long Doan, 2025-09-26 This third edition of the highly successful handbook is presented for the first time in two volumes covering the field of social psychology more comprehensively than earlier including applying social psychology to different areas in sociology It showcases the dynamics of social psychological phenomena across the micro level Volume 1 and meso and macro levels of social reality Volume 2 The reader will see how social psychology can be leveraged at the interactive level within groups and larger units and across many aspects of society thus showing the expansiveness of social psychology in understanding social behavior social organization and social structures The emphasis in Volume 1 rests on theoretical frameworks for processes occurring within individuals and among interacting individuals The chapters span fundamental principles pertaining to the social construction of meaning identity emotions language and social cognition and the structure and dynamics unfolding in interactions characterized by status social exchange network linkages and justice A shorter chapter offering an empirical illustration complements each theoretically oriented chapter Together the two volumes provide the reader with theoretical tools useful in understanding the basics of individual behavior while highlighting how social psychological processes emerge in a variety of contexts The connections among micro meso and macro levels through the lens of social psychology forge new pathways to understanding the various forms of inequality plaguing the social world

Foreign Student Exchange in Perspective Barbara J. Walton,1968 Crime and the City David Downes,1989-06-18 These essays reflect the stress on the local urban social world conveyed by John Mays as essential for an understanding of crime and delinquency It was Mays work which opened up what has since become familiar territory delinquency in its place neighbourhood and social setting Investing in Development Theodore Harvey Moran, Excellent and exceptionally timely Foreign Affairs This volume surveys current views in the debate about the impact of foreign direct investment on Third World development on growth employment exports technology and distribution of income It examines whether the efforts of less developed countries to attract and control multinational corporations have constituted a serious distortion of trade that threatens jobs in the home nations It provides new studies of foreign investment in agriculture and in the least developed states It looks at the threat of transmitting environmental pollution And it analyzes the link between international companies and the umbrella of World Bank cofinancing as a mechanism to reduce risk Finally it attempts to estimate how much of the gap in commercial bank lending might plausibly be filled by direct corporate investment over the next decade The Model Minority Stereotype Nicholas D. Hartlep,2021-04-01 Researchers higher education administrators and high school and university students desire a sourcebook like The Model Minority Stereotype Demystifying Asian American Success This second edition has updated contents that will assist readers in locating research and literature on the model minority stereotype This sourcebook is composed of an annotated bibliography on the stereotype that Asian Americans are successful Each chapter in The Model Minority Stereotype is thematic and challenges the model minority stereotype Consisting of a twelfth and updated chapter this book continues to be the most comprehensive book written on the model minority myth to date Social Problems ,1978 Modern Motherhood and Women's Dual Identities Petra Bueskens,2018-05-31 Why do women in contemporary western societies experience contradiction between their autonomous and maternal selves What are the origins of this contradiction and the associated double shift that result in widespread calls to either lean in or opt out How are some mothers subverting these contradictions and finding meaningful ways of reconciling their autonomous and maternal selves In Modern Motherhood and Women s Dual Identities Petra Bueskens argues that western modernisation consigned women to the home and released them from it in historically unprecedented yet interconnected ways Her ground breaking formulation is that western women are free as individuals and constrained as mothers with the twist that it is the former that produces the latter Bueskens theoretical contribution consists of the identification and analysis of modern women's duality drawing on political philosophy feminist theory and sociology tracking the changing nature of discourses of women freedom and motherhood across three centuries While the current literature points to the pervasiveness of contradiction and double shifts for mothers very little attention has been paid to how some women are subverting contradiction and rewriting the sexual contract Bridging this gap Bueskens interviews ten revolving mothers to reveal how periodic absence exceeding the standard work day disrupts the default position assigned to mothers in the home and in turn disrupts the gendered dynamics of household work A provocative and original work Modern Motherhood and Women's Dual Identities will appeal to graduate students and researchers interested in fields such as Women and Gender Studies Sociology of Motherhood and Social and Political Theory

Protesting Gender Anna Lavizzari, 2019-12-06 Drawing on fieldwork conducted in Italy among political activists of the LGBTIQ movement and the traditionalist movement during the anti gender campaign this book provides a dynamic picture of their sustained interactions Through an analysis of the contentious strategies discourses and performances of both the LGBTIQ and the traditionalist movements from a strategic interactionist perspective it considers the key actors involved in this struggle over normative and social change showing how activists on both sides are confronted with different dilemmas influencing each other's choices practices and identities at the individual and collective levels Approaching social movements as interactive processes the author deploys the concepts of social performance and gender performativity to illustrate the ways in which activists interact with and within gender norms and how they reproduce or contest gender hierarchies as they protest thus revealing the centrality of gender to the analysis of processes of recruitment and mobilization strategies frames and forms of organization As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and political science with interests in social movements and gender
