Baud,Johanna Louisa Ypeij,2009 Cultural tourism has become an important source of revenue for Latin American countries especially in the Andes and Meso America Tourists go there looking for authentic cultures and artefacts and interact directly with indigenous people Cultural tourism therefore takes place in close engagement with local societies This book analyse the effects of cultural tourism and the processes of change it provokes in local societies It analyses the intricacies of informal markets the consequences of enforcing tourist policies the varied encounters of foreign tourists with local populations and the images and identities that result from the development of tourism The contributors convincingly show that the tourist experience and the reactions to tourist activities can only be understood if analysed from within local contexts Contributors Michiel Baud Annelou Ypeij Lisa Breglia Quetzil E Casta eda Ben Feinberg Carla Guerr n Montero Walter E Little Keely B Maxwell Lynn A Meisch Zoila S Mendoza Alan Middleton Beatrice Simon Griet Steel Gabriela Vargas Cetina Tourism in Latin America especially the sort of cultural tourism that plays to desires for authentic experiences has become a key foreigner currency earner for many countries This important volume examines the impact of tourism across the region providing a rich survey of the range of experiences and teasing out the theoretical implications From the almost surreal Mi Pueblito theme park in Panama to mushroom hunting tourists in Oaxaca to the eco trail leading to Machu Pichu these chapters present compelling cases that speak to identity formation nationalism and economic impacts As the contributors show benefits are differentially accrued to various actors and often not to the communities that tourists come to see Yet the contributors also make it clear that in struggles over ownership authenticity and political representation local communities actively shape the contours and meanings of tourism at times successfully leveraging cultural capital into economic gains Edward F Fischer Director Center for Latin American Studies Vanderbilt University Journal of the Royal Society of Arts ,1886 Foreign Assistance and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1976 United States.
