Writing for the Eyes in the Spanish Golden Age Frederick A. De Armas, 2004 Although the very notion of writing for the eyes was not new to the Spanish Golden Age its ubiquitous presence during this period calls for rethinking of the traditional separation between the visual and the verbal in studies of Iberian culture This collection of essays seeks to open up this complex interdisciplinary field of study by including essays on many aspects of visual writing in sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain Jacket

Who was who in Twentieth Century Romania Șerban N. Ionescu, 1994 Ionescu has compiled over 2 000 biographies of personalities with impact on Romania's scientific literary political and social history He includes updated information on areas that were previously censored royalties politicians military leaders and people in diaspora he also provides an objective perspective on the Communist activists and leaders of the recent past

Peaceful Resistance Robert M. Press, 2017-03-02 An innovative study that examines how peaceful domestic tactics by individual human rights activists and organizational activists with public support can force an authoritarian regime to make key concessions Robert Press explores the creation and impact of a culture of resistance He examines how domestic pressure can be more important than foreign pressure for political reform especially in underdeveloped authoritarian states This study of contemporary Kenya fills a gap in traditional social movement theory to show how a resistance movement actually starts Contrary to long dominant theory the book shows how the initiative for such a movement can come from activists themselves in the face of severe obstacles in society With its unique findings on the effects of individual activism and peaceful resistance this book will attract a broad audience in the study and practice of international relations comparative politics sociology interest groups peace and conflict and human rights
