Planned Preaching George Miles Gibson, 1954      Positive Preaching and the Modern Mind Peter Taylor Forsyth, 1980-02-01      Worship: Adoration and Action D. A. Carson, 2002-09-10

Anxious that current interest in and discussion of worship are too much preoccupied with mere mechanics Dr Carson joined with an international group of scholars to produce this final volume of the five Tyndale Consultations First a biblical theology of worship is explored by the Japanese Yoshiaki Hattori and the Australian David Peterson From this foundation there follow reflections upon the practice of worship in nine different contexts denominational including Anglicanism and Lutheranism cultural South America and the Two Thirds World and also the charismatic movement and student groups In the final part the Croat theologian Miroslav Volf concludes that worship is the outworking of God centredness in individual and corporate experience The opinions expressed although at times in disagreement with one another are an indication of the wealth of diversity within the worldwide church

Scripture: A Very Theological Proposal Angus Paddison, 2009-10-10 To identify the biblical texts as Scripture is to make a series of specific claims about this text that it is drawn into the activity of the triune God of Israel that its ultimate destination is the worshipping church and that it has a ministry in shaping Christian thinking and acting Scripture A Very Theological Proposal advances that the resources for reading Scripture understanding its claims and acting upon them will be found by looking to the church's life and doctrines Reading Scripture with a host of theologians Paddison proposes a hermeneutic appropriate to reading Scripture both as divine address and the book of the church The book positions itself by resisting accounts in which Scripture's relationship to God and its life within the church are understood competitively as if the more we attend to one the less we are attending to the other Chapters further explore a doctrine of Scripture and the relationship of ethics doctrine and preaching to Scripture A final chapter asks can or should Scripture be read in the university
