Post Lome Wto Compatible Trading Arrangements Economic Paper Series 45:

Post Lomé WTO-compatible Trading Arrangements Christopher Stevens, Jane Kennan, 2001 This report on the future of EU trade policy has been written against a background of continuing uncertainty over a WTO waiver for the EU ACP Cotonou Convention that would continue liberal access to the EU for ACP exports until 2007 Journal of World Trade Law, 2008-02 Regionalism in International Investment Law Leon Trakman, Nick W. Ranieri, 2013-04-25 Regionalism in International Investment Law provides a multinational perspective on international investment law In it distinguished academics and practitioners provide a critical and comprehensive understanding of issues in a field which has grown exponentially in its importance particularly over the last decade focusing on the European Union Australia North America Asia and China The book approaches the field of foreign direct investment from both academic and practical viewpoints and analyzes different bilateral regional and multinational agreements often yielding competing perspectives The academic perspective yields a strong conceptual foundation to often misunderstood elements of international investment law while the practical perspective aids those actively pursuing foreign direct investment in better understanding the landscape identifying potential conflicts which may arise in more accurately assessing the risk underlying the issues in conflict and in resolving those issues Thorny issues relating to global commerce sovereignty regulation expropriation dispute resolution and investor protections are covered depicting how they have developed and are applied in different regions of the world These different treatments ensure that readers are able grasp the subject matter at multiple levels and provide a comprehensive overview of developments in the field of foreign direct investment Perspectives on Rules of Origin R. Das, R. Ratna, 2011-04-12 Rules of origin have emerged as one of the most controversial issues in any trade negotiations This book analyzes the economics of rules of origin in regional trade agreements It critically evaluates the empirical aspects providing fresh perspectives on complex policy negotiations and rules of origin implementation New Perspectives on Globalization and Antiglobalization Henry Veltmeyer, 2008 This completely revised and updated sequel to Globalization and Antiglobalization advances our understanding of the dynamics of neoliberal globalization and draws our attention towards efforts to construct another world beyond neoliberalism Incorporating a new introduction and conclusion as well as eight entirely new chapters it brings together eleven specialists in the political economy of international relations and globalization to reflect on and analyze the diverse dimensions of the globalization process Innocent Bystanders L. Alan Winters, 2009 Considers the implications of the proposed EU India Free Trade Agreement for other excluded countries throwing light on the general question whether the EU initiative to promote Free Trade Agreements is positive or not for those trading partners excluded from each one Financing for Development Percy S. Mistry, 2002 This publication addresses the key issues surrounding financing for development FfD the subject of the International UN Conference on Financing for Development UNCFD in Mexico in 2002 It is a useful guide for policy makers in developed and developing countries private sector institutions and international financial institutions EU Development Policy in a Changing World Andrew Mold, 2007 On many fronts European Union development policy is at a critical juncture in the face of new obstacles the EU has been forced to rethink trade security and its relationship with neighbors in North Africa and the Middle East Contentious questions have centered on the effects of EU expansion agricultural protectionism and development friendly trade policy in the EU and its member nations To answer these questions and others this expertly edited volume draws on analysis from well known specialists in fields such as public policy and economic development providing a critical overview of EU development policy and the challenges it must confront in an increasingly volatile and changing world The European Union Ali M. El-Agraa, 2011-09-08 The European Union has established itself as a leading text that provides readers from all disciplines with a sound understanding of the economics and policies of the EU Its wealth of information detail and analysis has ensured that previous editions have been read by a generation of students researchers and policy makers It covers all major EU policy areas as well as theories of economic integration the theory of economic and monetary union EMU the measurement of the economic effects of European integration and the legal dimension in EU integration It also includes an explanation and analysis of all recent developments affecting the EU such as enlargement the ratification of the Nice Treaty and the Convention for the Future of Europe This edition has been thoroughly revised and updated and includes new resources to help students and teachers including summaries review questions suggestions for essay titles and further reading lists British National Bibliography for Report Literature, 2003 Environmental Integration in the EU's External Relations Gracia Marín Durán, Elisa Morgera, 2012-03-16 The book examines the integration of environmental protection requirements into EU external relations focusing on unilateral bilateral and inter regional instruments which have been less explored than the multilateral dimension of EU environmental policy The book also explores for the first time the complex interplay and mutual influences between EU environmental integration initiatives and environmental multilateralism On the one hand it identifies the legal and other instruments used by the EU to support the implementation of multilateral environmental agreements in third countries particularly developing ones On the other hand it singles out the legal and other tools employed by the EU as a means to build partnerships with third countries in order to influence ongoing multilateral negotiations concerning the environment and sustainable development or to contribute to the development of new international environmental norms in the absence of such multilateral negotiations Ultimately the book traces the significant evolution of the various tools deployed by the EU to integrate environmental concerns in its external relations with a view to identifying emerging challenges and future directions Post-Lomé WTO-compatible Trading Arrangements Christopher Stevens, Jane Kennan, 2001 This report aims to stimulate a debate on the future of EU trade policy It was written against a background of continuing uncertainty over a WTO waiver for the EUACP Cotonou Convention that would continue liberal access to the European market for ACP exports until 2007 Whilst it may have influenced the resolution of this issue the immediate shortterm objective of the report was to help the ACP prepare for the start of negotiations on a post cotton agreement scheduled to begin in 2002 for completion by 2007 and in particular to set the agenda by seizing the intellectual high ground in the way that the European Commission was able to do during the final years of Lomé IV through the publication of its Green Paper
