Litowitz, 1997 The author presents a two tiered analysis that views postmodern legal thought as both a collective intellectual movement and as the work of particular theorists notably Friedrich Nietzsche Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Francois Lyotard and Richard Rorty He concludes that even though postmodern thought does not give rise to a normative theory of right that can be used as a framework for deciding cases it can focus attention on genealogy and discourse and can empower those who have been denied a voice in the legal system Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Modernity and Postmodern Culture Jim McGuigan, 1999 Amerikastudien, 1974 Postmodernism and the Search for Enlightenment Karlis Racevskis, 1993 Drawing largely on the work of Foucault Racevskis elucidates the philosophical and political problems at issue in the debate and the changes taking place in our ways of seeing ourselves and our relations with others He shows how the theme of enlightenment has been a central component in the conflicts that pit modernists against postmodernists Marxists against post Marxists and liberals against conservatives and he juxtaposes the arguments in such a way as to place reason and enlightened action in a new perspective Postmodernist Culture Steven Connor, 1997-01-23 This 2nd edition of Postmodernist Culture considers the work of Lyotard and Jameson and the way modern theories are impinging on more areas of culture including the law music dance ecology technology ethnography and spatial theories Postmodernism Maxwell Lincoln Anderson, 2003 Transcript of an online symposium on the Georgia O Keeffe Museum website Oct 1 14 2001 The Modern Postmodern Dialectic American Art and Culture 1965 2000 Intended to be a follow up to the symposium Defining American Modernism 1890 present held in Santa Fe at the opening of the Georgia O Keeffe Museum Research Center July 12 14 2001 Representation and Decoration in a Postmodern Age Alfred Hornung, Rüdiger Kunow, 2009 The contributions to this volume by European and American critics analyze different forms of representation and decoration in twentieth century American literature and the arts from the critical perspective of a postmodern age They range from theoretical discussions of non representational art forms and the defense of literary representation against deconstructive practices to the manifestation of political representation in postcolonial works The displacement of decorative elements in modern art and the resurgence of decoration in postmodernism is the focus of articles on modern American and contemporary ethnic painters as well as on American postcards The interaction of representative and decorative techniques provides the basis for new readings of literary texts and for the analysis of technological intelligence Envisioning a Decolonial Future Elsa del Campo Ramírez, 2019 Life in a Postmodern Culture, 1995 During the past decade postmodernism has become a much used buzz word For example one hears and reads about postmodern architecture postmodern films a postmodern economy and so forth What precisely is meant by this term Life in a Postmodern Culture attempts to answer this question In the introduction to the book the relation between the modern and the postmodern world is pointed out Following this the significance of postmodernity to various dimensions of life is examined These dimensions include politics art theology economics language science ethics and the cinema
